JOBS CREATED BY DREE: British Columbia & Newfoundland have received the least, and Quebec, the most, under the regional development incentives act (one of the federal government's blue ribbon programs to stimulate growth in economically depressed areas). Figures released recently calculated through the end of October, showed

Newfoundland has received $826,446, in incentives, creating an estimated 514 new jobs. Incentives to British Columbia total $478,337 created 146 new jobs. Prince Edward Island & Saskatchewan both of which received more money ($1.1 & $1.3 million respectively) had fewer jobs created; 309 & 342. The province to benefit most from the act is Quebec receiving just over thirty-nine million for a total of 8,621 new jobs. Nova Scotia was next in money, $20.3 million (1,348 jobs); New Brunswick was second in new jobs created 2,077 ($13.0 million). In all of Canada $95 million has been invested by the government as incentives for 17,284 new jobs, and additional $7.1 million in incentive grants was made in Special Areas employing an additional 1,078 new jobs.

LIQUOR SALES DOWN IN ONTARIO: Revenues from liquor sales dropped by nearly $33 million in Ontario last year, the Liquor Control Board of Ontario, reported last month. The decrease reflected unusually high sales in 1969 when there was a lengthy strike by liquor store workers in Quebec. Revenues from liquor sales in Ontario in the fiscal year ended March 31 dropped to $383.8 million from $415.7 million in the fiscal year 1968-1969.

BOXING: We have received the following from Terry Hayward. "I read an article in last week's Aurora where Bob Rayworth, the (so-called) Canadian Boxing Association Director, stated that the Boxing Federation doesn't like amateurs to be fighting on pro shows and if they do so are considered Professionals. Being the Boxing Promoter in this area I would like to clarify a few points.

First of all, it is impossible to promote an all-amateur or all-professional boxing card in Newfoundland. The fans who have attended these shows know that there is a 20 minute intermission between the amateur and professional fights. This is the only possible solution to have both parties fighting on the same night, each with their own rules. As far as being the C.A.B.A. Director of boxing in Newfoundland, I would like to ask what amateur boxing is going on around here and on the island unless it's on a professional show. So what is he directing?

Where were the C.A.B.A. in this area when Bill Drover, and myself left here two years ago? Boxing, which is now the most popular sport, died out until I came back and organized a show here around seven months ago. If Bob Rayworth and the C.A.B.A. would have stopped dreaming and did a little work in those two years probably Dave Simon, or Albert Summerville would be the Canadian Amateur Champions right now. In that time a lot of local talent went to waste or lost interest. This was the time C.A.B.A. should have stepped in."

A dance will be held on December 12 with the "Chevelles" providing music. Members come along and bring a friend. Social memberships are now available at the Club, $10.00 fee. BROOMBALL: Monday night's schedule will see K. of C. playing Hawks; Rangers against Apollos; Raiders taking on Bears and Lambs vs Aces.

SKI NEWS: Nancy Greene League Registration got off to a pretty slow start last Saturday. There are five weeks before the first qualification races, so kids should pick up membership applications at any of the schools, or come up to the Ski Lodge on Saturday morning. To be part of the Nancy Greene League does not mean you have to be a good skier. Those who are just beginning are just as welcome.

A word to older skiers - anyone who is interested in competitive racing must be in excellent physical condition. When on-the-hill coaching begins, only those in top shape will be admitted to the program. Adult fitness classes are Wednesday nights at L.C.C.

The Club Executive apologizes for the delay in sending membership cards. They have still not been received from the printer. However, this should not keep any members from using the facilities, as an up-to-date membership list is kept at the ski lodge.

How about planning a nice juicy T-Bone bar-b-que for this Sunday evening? Music on tape is provided to help you enjoy the cozy atmosphere. The keen skiers are already on the hill, and all programs should be in full swing by this weekend, weather permitting.

BOXING: "I would like to announce the opening of the much-needed and long-awaited 'Boxing Club' located on the top floor of the Labrador City Arena, in the Youth Association section. After a lot of searching and much more hard work it is finally opened to the public. Writing on behalf of the Boxing enthusiasts and myself I would like to offer our sincere appreciation to Mr. Paul Penney, Administration Superintendent, who on behalf of Iron Ore Co. of Canada, so generously donated various equipment and material to make possible the building of this club. Also, thanks to Rev. Mayberry and Clive Little of the Youth Association, for their interest and help." Terry Hayward.

On Friday past, shortly before noon, fire broke out in an 80% completed 24 unit apartment building at 74 Cabot Drive in Wabush. Before the all clear sounded at 3:00 p.m. the structure was totally destroyed. The Volunteer Fire Brigades of Wabush and Labrador City fought the blaze and succeeded in preventing it spreading to nearby buildings. The apartments were being constructed by Desrosier of Sept Iles for Carol Estates Ltd. It is believed the fire was caused by sparks from a welding torch igniting some insulating materials. An investigation is being conducted.

Magistrate M. Rowe recently returned from Churchill Falls where he conducted court. Three residents were convicted of impaired driving; were fined, and had their drivers license revoked for six months. Several fines were also assessed for bootlegging and possession of liquor not obtained through the Nfld. Liquor Commission.

During the past two weeks 25 Civil Actions have been heard by the Court at Labrador City. In the majority of cases debts and the issuing of N.S.F. cheques were dealt with. In one case a local resident was found guilty under the Canadian Criminal Code of issuing worthless cheques. This is a Federal offense and the person now has "a record".

Several residents really wanted to fight high food costs. They ordered supplies from Sept Iles but neglected to pay for them. The Court did not agree with this method of reducing living costs. A number of traffic violations were heard and fines assessed. A local resident was found guilty of failing to remain at the scene of an accident.

Seems our printer got carried away with the contract cost covering 12 miles of the Mount Wright road. Our last issue showed a cost of 17.7 million dollars, the contract has been valued at $1.7 million. While on the subject of the Mount Wright project; Quebec Cartier Mining announced recently that Peter Kiewit of Weston, Ont. and Northern Construction Co. of Vancouver (a joint venture) had been awarded a contract for construction of 88 miles of railroad from Gagnon to Mount Wright. This is an extension of the present 191 miles of rail-line linking Port Cartier to Gagnon. Work is to start immediately and will employ 800 men during the two year construction period. We understand Real St. Marie of Labrador City has the contract for clearing and grubbing, the right of way. The extension is made necessary as a result of the mining company's recently announced plans to develop a major iron ore deposit at Mount Wright in Northeastern Quebec. Quebec Cartier Mining Co., is now producing high grade specular hematite concentrate from Lac Jeannine Mine which are shipped to markets at an annual rate of 9.0 million tons yearly. The annual production capacity at the new mine will be 16.0 million tons of concentrate.

Understand the rapidly deteriorating medical situation in Labrador City will be brought to the fore at next week's meeting of the local Chamber of Commerce when the guest speaker will be Dr. J.P. Schaefer.

Over the past few weeks Aurora has received several reports regarding injuries caused by broken bottles (almost undetectable in the new snow). In the first instance a valuable dog was badly lacerated. The second incident was reported following painful injury to a young child who had slipped and fallen onto broken glass. A motorist advised us, two of his tires were damaged by jagged glass, from a broken liquor bottle. In conversation with local authorities we were informed new regulations to provide stiff fines for offences against the anti-litter law had been drafted and it was hoped these would be in effect before month end. How about it citizens, lets deposit our broken glass in proper containers or more injury and damage is inevitable.

From the Town of Labrador City we learn access from the Arena-Hospital area to Vanier-Churchill-Carol Drive area can now be routed via Ski Lodge Road and Q.C.M. temporary road. This road joining Vanier will be kept passable during winter months.

Editorially speaking

Last week a local TV skit on transportation, noted that 70 years ago it took 3 weeks for a letter mailed in Montreal to reach Toronto, whereas today it took only 2 weeks. On Monday 23 Nov. we received a letter from CBC, St. John's postmarked Nov. 6. The following day correspondence from Toronto mailed on 3 Nov. Seems things have gone from bad to worse since Mr. Kierans was moved from the Postal portfolio.

The delayed mail from St. John's was Mr. K. Morrow's letter which is published in this issue, and on which we will comment.

Agreed, that the question as to whether or not radio service has improved is strictly a personal one and in this writer's opinion it has not. Now Mr. Morrow states $47.0 million of the C.B.C.'s income comes from commercial revenue; correct, but where does the other $160.0 million required to support the Corporation come from? Possibly the government of Red China! No, unfortunately; it comes from the Federal Government of Canada and readers of Aurora are Federal taxpayers, AND HOW THEY PAY. As to "cut rate charges", I'm sure the Director is aware there should be very little difference in rates where the Corp. has a monopoly (Labrador) and say greater St. John's were it probably has 20% of a listening audience of 125,000. However I understand the advertising charges in Labrador are considerably less than St. John's.

As to private radio. In the early sixties groups from St. John's and New Brunswick investigated the possibility of establishing here but dropped the idea because of our small population. In 1966 Humber Valley Radio of Corner Brook made a formal submission to the Board of Broadcast Governors but the body rejected the proposal on the grounds it would not be an economically viable proposition. Humber Valley are at present preparing a new brief for consideration by the Canadian Radio and Television Commission.

The Labrador Network of the C.B.C.; this is a joke! There is one radio station in Labrador, C.F.G.B., Happy Valley and four repeater stations. And we believe this should be announced accordingly. Call letters may be fine, but they do nothing to improve the service.

On 19 Nov. a Canadian Press dispatch from Ottawa reported C.B.C. had announced plans to reorganize its radio service, dividing them into "Radio One" and "Radio Two", as the British Broadcasting Corporation. Under the plan Radio One would be a loose network of AM stations geared to serve INDIVIDUAL COMMUNITIES. Radio Two would be the National network.

In the opinion of this paper Labrador City-Wabush with a population of approximately 12,000, deserves its own Radio Station and we will continue to press this point. Aurora sees the choice as, either the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation establishes a community station here or it packs up its two transmission poles and boxes and allows a Commercial Station to be established here.

P.I.C. OK's, E.P.A. FARE CHANGES: The Prices and Incomes Commission has approved revision in air fares implemented late this past summer by Eastern Provincial Airways. On August 30, E.P.A. increased fares on eight routes and reduced fares on three others. Family and group fares were changed, and stop-over charges were introduced. These changes, are expected to provide a small increase in 1970 revenue. The Dominion Bureau of Statistics reported that in the first seven months of 1970, E.P.A. declared a loss of $129,000. In 1969 it declared net income, after taxes of $50,280. E.P.A. vice-president Bill Harris, said recently, the prospects for the company emerging out of the red have increased. Especially since jet service was introduced 18 months ago, traffic has increased 67%.

PLAYING CARDS: Most holders of gasoline credit cards regularly receive, without much encouragement on their part, offers for tool kits, radios, record players and even the occasional car battery, at reduced prices. But Sun Oil Co., Ltd has come up with a new marketing gimmick for reluctant card holders that could mean genuine pleasure when opening the monthly statement. To Sunoco card holders who haven't made a purchase in a month or so, Sun Oil sends a letter of encouragement, and a certificate worth $1.25 on the next billing. But Sun may have problems, if it continues the plan regularly. The smart Sunoco customer could learn to use his card every other month, thus getting a free $1.25 worth of gas for the month he does pull into Sunoco stations.

"Bloody" LOSES SHOCK VALUE: The word "bloody" is not insulting, according to a London magistrate. "When George Bernard Shaw included the word 'bloody' in Pygmalion everybody was very shocked and it was considered risqué," Judge Eric Crowther said recently. "But now no play on our television screens is complete without the word being mentioned several times." Crowther advised Michael Wemborne, 45, a docker, to plead innocent to using an insulting word. He then dismissed the charge.

"It's Superdoctor!"

The Editor,
The Aurora,

Dear Sir:

Have you tried to make an appointment lately with a doctor at the Capt. Wm. Jackman Memorial Hospital? Bet you couldn't get one till a week later. Then when you were there on time for your appointment, bet you had to wait another two hours or more before being seen by the Doctor! But if you only had to wait two hours, don't consider that such a long impatient wait. My waiting period was 3 (three) hours and 20 minutes, and then was told I had to return the next morning for further tests, as the Lab. girls had left 2 hours previously for the day.

By this time my stomach had been rumbling for over an hour while in the waiting room, which I didn't find too embarrassing as at least three others joined in with their stomachs rumbling. I mean, why shouldn't we have been hungry, after all, it was later than our usual dinner hour. I thought the patients who had been waiting over two and a half hours would probably be given a nice hot cup of coffee, we were even willing to pay for it.

The wait for some of us was so long, I was sure one woman was going to deliver right in that same room, not to mention the woman who also had been there for three hours in pain from kidney trouble, or the three crying babies, one which had finally vomited, blocking all breathing passages. There was as usual, only one doctor present, the other was out of town, as usual, leaving this one overworked, over-tired and probably hungry doctor to attend to these so many patients, in one day of Clinic hours, besides the various casualties dropping in suddenly.

This same doctor, finally through about 6.30 or 7.00 having only enough time to grab a sandwich for his supper, has to make his and the other doctor's nightly rounds to the hospitalized patients, besides answering the several outside phone calls. This meant he usually called it a day around 11.00 p.m., and more times even later.

I know for a fact that he has far too much pressure put upon him. I phoned at 6.30 one Saturday evening, for the doctor's medical advise for my child, who he had the day before operated on. I was told he was still busy with his afternoon clinic patients, but will be back (or still there) around 7.15 for his nightly rounds (as this evening he had no nightly clinic) and that, after leaving my phone number and name, he would call me back. So, when 9.00 arrived and I still hadn't heard from the doctor, I phoned, figuring my message had been forgotten and the doctor was probably gone. The switchboard operator explained he was still busy, this time with a woman in the delivery room. I finally received the call from my doctor at 11.00 p.m. He advised me to bring my child in to see him early the next morning.

Surprised, I reminded him that the next day was Sunday and that my child's condition was nothing serious, that I wouldn't want to participate with his hospital patients in spoiling his only day off. He replied that there was no other doctor present and he would still be at the hospital regardless.

This Doctor, I must say, sure has a lot of strength and plain goodness in him (and probably a lot of pills and liquid medicines) to keep on working.

We patients may complain of the long wait, but what about the doctor?? Doesn't the hospital staff and Government realize a man needs at least 45 minutes to an hour off for each meal to be able to enjoy the food, not to mention he would greatly appreciate it? It also gives a man time to find out what is actually happening to this world, simply by having time to read the daily newspaper, or even enough time to listen to the news on the radio (even if it is C.B.C.).

What about his social life? Is he nat as human as the rest of us? Everyone enjoys a night of relaxing with, or by, visiting friends, or enjoys a party once in a while, meeting people on a social basis for a change. I also think some individuals would like a chance to meet others of the same group to socialize with. But, it seems our doctor, or doctors, can't even afford time off to just think!

I feel sure that I am writing this letter on behalf of all the past and present patients of the doctors of the Capt. Wm. Jackman Memorial Hospital.

Isn't there any way at all to get another doctor in here to assist the ones we do have.....before it is too late?

Best of luck to you.....S U P E R - D O C T O R !

Signed

One of the 9,000 patients.

Medical needs are outlined by candidate

A release from Peter J. WALSH, candidate for the Progressive Conservative Party in the district of Labrador West:

"The medical needs of the twin towns of Labrador City and Wabush are presently being served by four doctors — two in each town. Certainly these doctors are doing their utmost to adequately care for their patients in the area. However to expect four doctors to provide medical service for a population in excess of 12,000 is extremely unfair — to the doctors themselves, and most certainly to the people they serve.

province to province across Canada the average ratio of doctors to population roughly works out to 1 doctor per 1000 population. Thus each of our four doctors is being asked to care for a population three times the national average. We intend to bring this fact to the attention of the provincial Department of Health.

"We feel justified, then, in requesting additional medical personnel for Labrador City and Wabush, and suggest that two additional doctors should be secured. In addition, during the upcoming construction period, we feel a seventh doctor would

ORE SHIPMENTS: A total of 5,350,859 tons of iron ore were shipped from Canadian mines in September, 323,982 tons more than the 5,026,876 tons shipped in September a year ago, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics reports. Shipment from January to September rose to 39,136,602 tons from 24,716,173 tons a year earlier.

YOUTHFUL DRINKERS PRAISED: Youthful drinkers have received high praise from the Manitoba Liquor Control Commission and hotel managers for their conduct in the province's pubs and liquor lounges since the amended Age (21 to 18) of Majority Act came into effect on 15 Sept. this year.

HOUSING STARTS DOWN IN ATLANTIC AREA: Housing starts in the four Atlantic Provinces for the first nine months of this year totalled 3,351, a drop of 39% from the 5,509 starts recorded during the corresponding period last year. Central Mortgage & Housing Corp. said in its review of housing in centres with a population of 10,000 and more, that 338 houses were started in September, down 21% from the 430 starts in Sept. 1969. The number of starts for the first nine months in Newfoundland dropped 39% from 655 to 400. P.E.I. dropped 3% to 113 from 117, while Nova Scotia was down 41% to 1,982 from 3,378 and New Brunswick 37% to 856 from 1,359. In the month of September, P.E.I. was down 65% to 7 from 20; Newfoundland dropped 30% to 42 from 60; Nova Scotia was down 16% to 169 from 202 and New Brunswick dropped 19% to 120 from 148.

NEW PHDS GO JOBLESS: It costs about

$144,000 to produce one PhD but an increasing number of these highly-trained university graduates are unable to find jobs says a report released recently by the Graduate Students' Union at the University of Toronto.

QUEBEC AIR OBTAINS LICENCE CHANGE: The Canadian Transport Commission has approved a licence change allowing Quebecair to operate charter flights to South America. The Montreal-based airline was previously restricted to operation in North America and the Caribbean.

The commission said it approved the application despite objections from Air Canada and C.P. Air.

TRAVEL NOTES: CASH ONLY LIMIT ON DESTINATIONS:

While Europe, the sun resorts and cruises will be the most popular winter travel buys, there's no limit save cash, on the destinations from which to choose. "Down Under" is available for around $1,000 from the West Coast; Hawaii on a charter flight for around $600 from Montreal; or a South African safari for $1,500 up.

For the really affluent there are around-the-world cruise lasting approximately three months for $5,000 up. All these are plus incidental expenses, which can be as extravagant or as parsimonious as the individual conscience dictates. For those with the time but not the affluence, there are freighter voyages at around $10 per person per day.

Canadians, statistics prove, are among the world's biggest per capita spenders on travel. Indications are they'll uphold that reputation through the winter months, and beyond.

FRENCH EXPORT DISCOUNT: the 17% export discount that is allowed to foreign tourists in France can now be obtained directly at bank windows at Orly and Le Bourget airports in Paris. Formerly, the refunds were mailed to purchasers after they returned home.

SEE EUROPE & SAVE: European travel at bargain prices is the feature of a destination program released last month by Air Canada to promote "off season" vacation in popular tourist centres aboard.

"See Europe and Save" is the theme of a new brochure published by the airline suggesting a variety of winter holiday centres Canadian travellers can visit when air fares are low, hotel rates plunge and the summer and autumn crowds have thinned out. The off-season "breakaway" savings apply to destinations in the United Kingdom, Ireland, Austria, Switzerland and France where hundreds of winter-time bargains are available from November through March.

The program researched and planned by the carrier's travel development staff, includes bargains in bus and train fares as well as car rentals, and suggests "package vacations" of varying lengths through which visitors can take advantage of substantial savings in hotel accommodations. Many destinations offer special off-season bonus features like free sight-seeing tours, theatre tickets and souvenir parcels.

A "Maxi-Weekend" in London is a typical holiday plan for visitors using that city as a gateway to winter holidays in the United Kingdom and Europe. The bargain weekend includes two nights in a luxury hotel, two daily meals and free theatre ticket for just over $30.00 in Canadian funds. Off-season price for a 29-45 day, round-trip excursion fare is $252.00 from Montreal, a considerable saving over the peak season $524.00 ticket.

Another popular weekend suggestion is Austria's world-famous music centre of Salzburg where three nights' accommodation, breakfasts, guided tours and Austrian folklore evenings are included in a holiday package starting as low as $9.00 per person Air Canada's trip, with connections in London, Frankfurt, Zurich or Paris, sells for $298.00 on a 29-45 day excursion plan between November and March. Peak season fare is $630.00.

NEW PORTS OF CALL: The 1970-71 winter cruise program of the Queen Elizabeth 2 includes 9 island ports never before visited by the Cunard Line ship.

Maiden arrivals will take place at St. Lucia (17 Dec.), Port au Prince (30 Dec.), La Guaira (11 Jan.), St. Vincent (24 Jan.), Freeport (1 Feb.), Aruba (8 Feb.), St. Croix (10 Feb.), Nassau (10 Mar.), and Bermuda (25 Mar.). The QE 2's winter cruise program to West Indies islands consists of nine cruises, the first of which began on Monday, 30 Nov. Included are one 9-day; two 12-day, three 13-day and three 14-day sailings, all departing from New York. Rates for the 9-day cruise begin at $390.00.

First, in answer to an inquiry as to the 20 largest companies in Canada. The following is the latest information I have been able to procure. The corporations are listed by rank as to (1) Sales, (2) Assets, (3) Net Income. Several of the larger companies do not appear on the list because they do not publish financial statements and reliable estimates are not available. These firms are mostly subsidiaries of U.S. and other foreign companies, such as General Motors of Canada Ltd., Chrysler Canada Ltd., American Motors (Canada) Ltd., and Canadian International Paper Co. These four would undoubtedly rank amongst the largest companies.

Led by a very bullish oil stocks the Canadian market has outpaced that of the United States in recent days. How long this will continue is questionable. Canadian unemployment is rising, sales and profits are almost stagnant. However the mutual funds may be getting back in the market, hoping to improve their rather "sick" 1970 performance before year end. So for the next week or two we will again observe a "wait and see" position,

Our first report on the outlook for 1971.

1. Gross national product will begin to grow again early in the year and will pick up speed as the year progresses. Real G.N.P. will be 3.5% to 4.0% higher than in 1970.

2. Prices will rise by less than 3.0%.

3. Unemployment will be about 6.5% seasonally adjusted for most of the year.

4. Consumers will be buying more but their outlays will be retrained by worries about unemployment.

5. Business spending will pick up late in the year. Profits will be better than 1970, but not buoyant.

6. Government spending will increase steadily, especially spending on stabilizing programs like unemployment insurance.

Labrador City Collegiate

Principal's report

Labrador City Collegiate held its annual awards night on November 23 and at that event, Principal E.M. Swyer, delivered his report. Following are excerpts from the report. Portions of the address of the guest speaker, Dr. C.R. Barrett will be published in an upcoming issue of The Aurora.

Mr. Chairman, Dr. Barrett, Mr. Gregoire, Members of the Board, Reverend Sirs, other distinguished Guests, Ladies and Gentlemen, Staff and Students:

During last year our total enrolment was 786. There were sixteen form classes in operation. Thirteen in the English section and three in the French section. Altogether, the staff totalled thirty-three and remained the same throughout the year.

The curriculum of the English section consisted of two programs. Students could pursue a program leading to matriculation or to a general school leaving certificate. In addition to the regular core program in each grade, students were offered several elective courses to further provide for differences in ability and interest. Because of internal school examinations in Grades IX and X, we were able to provide for a great deal of freedom for Educational Experimentation in curriculum. However, because of the regular Public examinations at the Grade XI level, we were obliged to follow the curriculum of the Province of Newfoundland and Labrador.

In Business Education, two programs were pursued. A one year course was offered to students having completed Grade XI and a two year course for those having completed Grade X.

An Interscholastic program was also very successful. Competition was provided by high schools from Wabush, Schefferville, Gagnonville, Sept-Iles, Gander, Grand Falls, Corner Brook and St. John's. Both our Boys and Girls teams won the basketball and gymnastic championships.

On the Provincial scene, our Senior Girls competed in the All-Newfoundland Basketball tournament and came second over-all in the tournament. Our Gymnastic teams, both boys and girls, won the Provincial Championships in their respective fields. This is the first athletic Provincial Championship for our school.

A Science Fair was held during Education week and was under the direction of our Science Club. The Fair endeavoured to inform the public and the junior students in Labrador West of the modern trends in the study of science. Approximately 800 students and adults visited the Fair.

Our Drama Club entered the play "Still Stands the Horse" into the Provincial Student Drama Festival at Corner Brook. This play was well received and brought to our school the Best Actress Award.

Our school again took part in the C.B.C. Public Speaking Contest. Our entry won the Labrador semi-finals by defeating Wabush and Churchill Falls and won the Labrador Finals by defeating Goose Bay.

An English and French edition of the School Newspaper was published on a monthly basis. Expression was in the form of poetry, humour, gossip, quizzes, news of general interest and cross-word puzzles.

Our school participated in the Young Voyageur Program. 4 students from our school visited Regina and in return, students from Edmonton visited Labrador City. While we feel that we were due a much greater representation from our school, we were happy that at least we had found that students could participate in this worthwhile venture.

A Career Day was proclaimed in March. 36 people from the community spoke to various groups of students on a variety of careers. As a follow-up, the students visited the different fields of endeavour in the area for additional information.

The work-experience program provided for students in Business Education helped bridge the gap between classroom theory and practice. A full week of on-the-job experience was offered by the business organizations in Labrador City. Employers completed an individual assessment check list which gave guidance to the school regarding teaching emphasis in particular areas of the program.

In the English section of the school, 165 pupils wrote final examinations in Grades IX and X. 147 pupils or 82.3% were promoted. This is 23.4% higher than the Provincial average. A total of 80 Grade XI and Business Education students wrote Public Examinations and 77 or 96.3% were successful in receiving Diplomas. This is 25.9% above the Provincial average.

In the Spring of 1969, the private school board decided to investigate the possibilities of introducing a senior matriculation program at Labrador City Collegiate. As a consequence of this decision, the school year 1969-70 was spent in developing such a program. This new course called the "University Year Program" began in September of this year with 36 registered students.

Although this program is affiliated with Memorial University of Newfoundland, all other universities that were contacted regarding it stated their intention to recognise the program as equivalent to senior matriculation or the first year of work on a four year Bachelor's program.

I would like to point out that this program is directly or indirectly of great benefit to every student at Labrador City Collegiate. Not only does it offer the students a chance to do first year university work while remaining at home, but also the facilities of the school have been improved in the areas of labs, library and teaching staff in order to offer this program.

This program also is quite an honor to Labrador City Collegiate, as it marks the first time in Newfoundland when a high school has been granted permission by Memorial University to teach its first year of studies off the university campus. Other high schools in the province are undoubtedly following our progress with a great deal of interest.

This summary of our school's success in the past year has merely highlighted the main achievements. While all these achievements help contribute to an all-round education, it has not been our philosophy to aim for this glory. We are basically interested in the individual student.

The success that we have had is due in no small measure, to the training, experience, cooperation and dedication of our staff, together with the professional assistance and diligence of our Vice-Principals, Mrs. Martin and Mr. Jean Guy Labbe. The Private School Board, under the direction of Mr. Selleck, are to be commended upon their genuine interests in education. We are likewise fortunate in having the goodwill and support of the Superintendent of Education for the Amalgamated Schools and his Principals, as well as the Principal of Notre Dame Academy.

Lastly, and perhaps most decisive, in our success during the past year, was the interest and support shown by the parents and the active participation of the students themselves in all phases of school life. Thank you.

A reply from the CBC

The Editor,
The Aurora,

Dear Sir,

May we be permitted space in your columns to comment on your editorial of October 26.

There is, as you point out, far more news emanating from the Island to the Labrador transmitters since the radio link with the Newfoundland Regional network was established — prior to that time there was practically none. We do challenge, however, the charge that there has been a reduction in the amount of national news. The major national and international news items are included in our regional newscasts from St. John's, and the same national newscasts are included in the Labrador schedule as are carried on all CBC stations in the Region. The question of whether the service is improved or not is a subjective one — we feel it has, and almost everyone in the area who has spoken to us has. We can only ask you and your readers to judge for yourselves and, if you're dissatisfied, let us know.

You speak of our commercial activities, and say we are "subsidized entirely by you (your readers) as a Canadian taxpayer". This is incorrect — $47,000,000 of our expenses comes from our commercial revenue. We employ no full-time sales staff in Labrador and our rates are based on the number of listeners available to our advertisers and are in no way "cut rate charges".

We have been unable to find any example of an official of the CBC making any statement about the feasibility of a private commercial station operation in the area. No private operator has ever made application to operate a station in Labrador City—Wabush and none has ever been denied the opportunity to do so, or is denied that right now.

What revenues we might receive from Labrador City—Wabush advertisers (and let me assure you these are minimal) are not just to "pay for CFBG" as you state. They will help to meet a small portion of the cost of bringing the National and Regional service of the CBC to your area and the cost of providing a local service for the whole of the Labrador through a network of transmitters in Labrador City—Wabush, Churchill Falls, Happy Valley, and now Cartwright, whose production centre is located centrally in Happy Valley.

We're proud of our service to Labrador. We know it isn't either perfect or complete yet. Given the financial resources — from Parliament by grant, from the relatively small commercial revenue from Labrador advertisers, and from proportionately larger commercial revenues from the rest of Canada — it will improve.

Yours very truly,
Keith Morrow
Director for the Province of Newfoundland and Labrador

For the Holiday gathering

Tandy Advertising Ltd. of Toronto sprung a new approach to wine advertising in Canada this fall when it prepared a print campaign for Parkdale Wines Ltd. of Toronto.

In a determined break with what Parkdale calls the soporific candlelight and wine type of ad, "the agency went for a wine and hot dog theme. The pitch was essentially to a younger generation that seemed to be ripe for a moderately priced quality wine.

The company feels it crossed barriers as far as wine advertising is concerned. The hot dog theme drew a significant number of responses. Parkdale plans to give its white wine champagne a promotional push during the pre-Christmas period in a print campaign scheduled to start today. Wine for all occasions is the broad theme.

CHEESE, WINE AND FRUIT COMBINATIONS: Probably a wine and hot dogs affair is not your idea of what to serve your friends during the holiday season. However an item that has proven very popular over the past few years is the Wine & Cheese party. Sea Cadets being supervised in the passing of a life line in a whaler during their training at C.F.B. Cornwallis, Nova Scotia.

These Sea Cadets are in the act of conducting their watch in the wheel house in one of Canada's ships. The big surprise, however, is that it is the steering position in the New Entry Seamanship School in C.F.B. "Cornwallis" which is firmly secured in the Annapolis Valley of Nova Scotia.

OUT WITH THE BALD "DOME:" Hair-conscious men seem to be getting more than a rinse from the advertising industry these days. Those without a tuft on top are increasingly exhorted to get a wig or stick-on hair and the "does he or doesn't he" snicker may be more acceptable to former bald-headed men than inferences that bare crowns represent socially inexcusable exposure. And there are dyes for prematurely greying and terminal grey heads. But, if the adman and the market analyst are right, even naturally hair-headed men have problems, imposed or other. This is what John Hayter, marketing manager for Alberto-Culver of Canada Ltd. of Toronto says: "Today's modern man is not satisfied with just one kind of hair groomery; our research has clearly indicated that most young males prefer their hair to look dry and natural, but other men with special problem hair want a strong holding spray or a combination conditioner and hair groom." Mr. Hayter does not kid. Alberto-Gulver has introduced three new men's aerosol hair grooming products (and one male aerosol anti-perspirant) under the virile-sounding name of Command. It has also introduced another product, Born Free Protein Shampoo, which promises new life to undernourished male or female hair for those able to make the distinction.

The lighter side

BIRTH CONTROL: — Small Boy; "I'm afraid of going to the hospital, mother. I'll be brave and take my medicine but I'm not going to let them palm off a baby on me like they did on you. I want a pup."

AN EXPENSIVE WIFE: As Dave, an enterprising bachelor, walked into the lobby of a hotel, he spied a buxom, blonde beauty, sitting near the elevator. He approached her, and in no time at all they were engrossed in conversation. About an hour later, Dave walked over to the desk, and signed the register: Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Jones. The next morning when they were checking out, Dave walked over to the clerk and asked him to give him his bill. The clerk obliged. When he looked at this bill, our bachelor friend turned red as a beet and turned to the clerk, "What do you mean giving me a bill for $645.00?" he screamed. "You know damned well I've only been here for one night. "That's true, Mr. Jones." smiled the clerk knowingly. "But your wife's been here for two months."

THE GORMETS: Two cannibals at the dinner table: 1st Gannibal: "I can't stand

my mother-in-law. 2nd Cannibal: "So just eat the noodles."

THE LIONS CLUB: Feeling dull and listless? Take heart! The following appeared in the Classified of the San Antonio, Texas Express—News:

EXOTIC ANIMALS
Now taking orders on everything from shunks to Lion clubs. The following was received from the local Lions club. "The knowledge of sharing equal time with our small furry friend is being so recognized is, well, shall we say, "overwhelming."

BOTTOMS UP: A crack Hollywood cameraman reluctantly devoted an entire day to shooting artistic stills on a spectacularly untalented new screen personality. She later threw all his fifty proofs aside and pouted, "you never photographed my best side." "How could I?" said the cameraman grimly. "You were sitting on it."

LOVE OR MONEY: Wife: "If it weren't for my money, this television set wouldn't be here. If it weren't for my money, the chair you're sitting in wouldn't be here. If it weren't for my money, this house wouldn't be here." Husband: "And if it weren't for your money, I wouldn't be here."

CLEANLINESS: Dickie, aged 3, did not like soap and water and put up quite a fight whenever he had to take a bath. "Surely you want to be a clean little boy, don't you?" asked his mother. "Yes," he tearfully agreed, "but can't you just dust me?"

REBATE WANTED: A soldier called at the chaplain's office. "I just came to ask you," he said, "whether you think it's right for any person to profit by the mistakes of others." "Most certainly not, my son," replied the chaplain. The soldier brightened and held out his hand. "Then perhaps you'll return the five dollars I gave you last June for marrying me."

PROPER DRESS: "Two flies were ambling along, upside down on the ceiling. One stopped and said: "I hate to mention this, George, but your people is open."

"MUG SHOT": Comment heard on a bus: "My wife has been missing for three days, I'd go down to the police station and give them her description, but they'd never believe it."

AMBITION: A personnel director called at a university to interview prospective employees. "I understand," he said to one candidate, "that you're looking for work." "No," said the student, "just a job."

OPTIONAL ACCESSORIES: The married couple went out for a Sunday drive. When the wife turned around she noticed a pair of panties in the back seat. "Where did you say you were last night?" she asked. "I told you I had a business appointment," he replied. "O.K., then tell me what those things are doing here. They surely don't belong in the car." He took a quick look at the suspicious panties and said, "Of course they belong in the car. They're seat covers!"

BLAST-OFF: A housewife was watching the launching of a spaceship on television — the intense activity of the ground control team, the seconds of the countdown being ticked off, the suspense of the last few instants, then the smoke and flame as the rocket rose slowly and was lost in the distance. "Hm," she cried, "It's just like getting Billy off to school."
