Elect the great new Liberal team.

In 22 short years, we've changed the face of Labrador. From a vast, untouched wilderness to a powerhouse of natural mineral wealth. We've seen great mining projects spring up in Labrador City and Wabush. The grandeur of Churchill Falls. New schools. Modern hospitals. Free dental care. Free school books. And jobs.

As Liberals, we've always tried to do our best for Labrador. And we want to do more.

That's why we now have a great new Liberal team. Experienced, talented men with ideas like Roy Legge, Mel Woodward and Joe Harvey. They know Labrador and they know your needs.

One thing is certain--you'll never get anything done by sitting back criticising.

We've shown you the Liberals get things done. And we mean to do more. We ask for your support now. For the sake of Labrador.

This is the time to vote Liberal.

Today as always Newfoundlanders are saying,

Of course I'm voting LIBERAL

FASHION SHOW: The first show of the season was presented by Ayre's of Wabush and sponsored by Anglican Church Women's Association, last week. This annual Fashion was held at Ashaumpi Social Club with approximately 200 people in attendance. Models Pat Galbraith, Judi Haines, Elaine Little, Millicent Miller, Gaile Miller, Rowena Payne, Carolyn Rendell, Helen Taylor, Wendy Thoms and Marilyn Wokatsch showed a wide range of Leathers, Borgs, Dresses, Sportswear and Evening, Hostess and Long Casual Dresses.

The THEME: Winter — If you can't beat it, join it. Beautifully! Fashionably:

Entertainment was provided by the Gemini 5.

Commentator was Mrs. Diane Squarey.

The tastefully decorated backdrop — for the models — was assembled by Miss Eileen Salde of Ayre's.

Mrs. N.V. German, President, Canadian Chamber of Commerce, paid a short visit to our area last week and spoke at a luncheon — given in his honor — at Sir Wilfred Grenfell Hotel. In his remarks the President spoke of recent Government fiscal policies and their effect on business — especially small business. He mentioned briefly his recent trip to China and stated this giant of a nation would soon have a very strong voice in international affairs both political and fiscal. In answer to some recent government politics — especially those introduced by Mr. B. Makasey and Mr. R. Basford — the Calgary native stated businessmen should take greater interest in politics on the Federal and Provincial scenes. He concluded by saying a phrase heard quite often today in Canada is "Guaranteed Annual Wage" but businessmen might soon be requesting of Ottawa a "Guaranteed Annual Profit."

Neil V. German, Calgary, Alberta, was elected president of The Canadian Chamber of Commerce at the national business organization's 42nd Annual Meeting in Quebec City. He was formerly first national vice-president. In business life, Mr. German is president, Medicine Hat Greenhouses Limited. As the 42nd president of the Canadian Chamber, Mr. German is the chief spokesman for the national voluntary federation of some 800 Chambers of Commerce and Boards of Trade, which has a membership of over 125,000 businessmen. Widely known in business circles, he is owner of the law firm, German, Patterson & Co.; president and director, Katinka Agencies Limited, Western Enterprises Limited, and Arctic Enterprises Limited; and former member for many years of the Tariff Committee of the Allied Florists & Growers of Canada. Mr. German has been keenly involved with the Canadian Bar Association and was a former governor of the Canadian Tax Foundation. He is a member of the Alberta Law Society and the Calgary Bar Association. Active in Chamber and community work, Mr. German is a past president of the Calgary Chamber of Commerce; and a past director of the Canadian Chamber and the Alberta Chamber of Commerce. He has been a delegate of various committees of the Canadian Chamber at overseas meetings, and represented the Chamber on the mission led by the Hon. Jean Luc Pepin, Minister of Industry, Trade and Commerce, to the People's Republic of China. He was a member of the Optimist International Long Range Planning and the Constitution and By-law committees and a past director and past vice-president of Optimist International. Born in Hanna, Alberta, May 29, 1916, Mr.

German graduated from the University of Alberta with the B.A. and L.L.B. degrees both Cum Laude, and won 18 scholarships including the coveted Rhodes Scholarship. He was an outstanding athlete in high school and college in spite of being stricken with osteomyelitis at the age of six. He was Featherweight Boxing Champion, Western University; winner of the Walter Beaumont Boxing Trophy for outstanding Boxer of the Year in Alberta; and member and captain of the Alberta University track team. Mr. German is married and has two daughters and a son.

IN A LINE: Work on the new Humber Valley Broadcasting outlet, in Wabush, seems to be progressing well. We notice the pre-fab. home is now on foundation. However, to date, no work on planned opening. In Labrador City: The extension of Vanier Road to Fairmont Highway is now open. Residents of the north end of town may use this artery for connections with Avalon Drive and Airport Road.

NOTE OF THANKS: To the residents of Labrador City and Wabush I would like to take this opportunity to thank all those who helped during the death of my late husband Jacques. And my very personal and sincere thanks to Mr. & Mrs. V. Gregoire — Mr. & Mrs. P. Penney — Dr. & Mrs. Lebel and Mr. J. Lafitte, Mr. R. Bellemare, Mr. R. Boyer, Mr. G. Roy. To all those who helped in any way I send special thanks.

Mrs. Jacques Emond

FORTHCOMING WEDDING: Mr. and Mrs. George Horner, of Labrador City, wish to announce the engagement of their eldest daughter Donna Marie to Martin Michael, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Parsons, of Fox Harbour, Newfoundland. Wedding date to be announced later.

Editorially Speaking

DAY OF DECISION: Although you've probably heard it several times in recent weeks, Aurora would like to reiterate this election is the most important since Newfoundland & Labrador became a Province of Canada. Locally we are one of three districts in the Province where four candidates are seeking the seat. In our last editorial we stated it looks like a two party race and events of recent days have merely confirmed our opinion. Both P.C.'s and N.L.P.'s held major rallies last week. Reports as to the number of vehicles taking part in motorcades varied widely. But in this writer's opinion the N.L.P. drew more cars. However, as Mr. John Crosbie said last week, "it's very difficult to put automobiles and kiddies in ballot boxes." So on this point we feel more "voters" attended the two P.C. rallies.

You may also recall that in our column of 13 Oct. we noted Ontario electors would be going to the polls on 21 Oct. And we stated that, in spite of the fact P.C.s had governed Ontario for more than a quarter of a century, in our opinion Premier Davis would lead his party to victory and we were correct as Mr. Davis led his team to an overwhelming triumph. One of the major points of difference we noted between Ontario and Newfoundland was the fact through 28 years of rule in Ontario the P.C.s had 5 leaders—in Newfoundland through 22 years this Province has had but one absolute leader. And on this point alone felt it was time for a change.

As we said earlier it looks like a two way fight between P.C.s and N.L.P.s. One of the more interesting points we heard last week concerned a new Government and a new opposition. The speaker noted both P.C.s and Liberals had 42 candidates nominated; N.D.P. had 17 and N.L.P. 3. Whatever party wins Government and Opposition will be either Liberal or P.C. Even if N.D.P. or N.L.P. do elect one or two members they will be a very minute third force, especially when even their most ardent supporters forecast no more than 3 per cent of the Provincial vote. Of course, the choice is yours, but to this long time resident of Labrador the best hope of the future for Labrador West lies with the new P.C. Government.

We have tried throughout this short campaign to be as non-biased as possible. And, of course, found it extremely difficult. However, on 28 October YOU the voter make the final decision. So, whatever your political belief, GET OUT AND VOTE on Thursday, 28 October.

AFTER READING "BLACK BART"

Editor,
The Aurora,
Labrador City.

Dear Sir:

I have read with much interest the "Soapbox" article by "Black Bart" in last weeks edition of the Aurora.

In my opinion a more suitable "nom de plume" for Black Bart would be "confused voter." Bart no doubt tried to express his views in a "private impartial and honest" manner but he fell into a common pitfall among aspiring writers, he did not have his subject matter thought out or thoroughly researched.

For instance his comments on the Labrador West political situation were not factual in describing either of the candidates, their aims or ambitions. It is obvious that Bart knows who the candidates are but he has not taken any steps to meet or interview any of them. Nor indeed has he consulted with the executive officers of either political party. If he had done this the article might have made worthwhile reading material.

"Black Bart", being a relative newcomer to this area, is unfamiliar with the living conditions, needs or issues at stake in Labrador West and has brought with him an island concept of "one party" politics. Bart, being a new resident of Labrador West, I personally don't believe he is qualified to sit in judgement and give an unbiased opinion on the current political situation.

The article is "Liberally" interpreted as being the work of a "Liberal" minded person who is not about to accept the fact that the corrupt system will soon fall about his ears.

In an "after the fact" conversation with Black Bart I explained to him what I have outlined above. Thrown in for good measure was a "Liberal" helping of New Labrador Party Policy and an invitation to meet the best man for Labrador West, Mr. Tom Burgess.

Yours truly,
Malcolm Moss
President,
New Labrador Party,
Labrador West.

BEHIND THE MACHINE

The Editor,
The Aurora,
Dear Sir:

On October 28, 1971, Newfoundlanders will once again exercise their democratic right to vote in another provincial election. If they are seriously influenced by the Liberal association's multi-million-dollar Propaganda machine (rather than their own intelligence) then, we can expect to be ruled for another 4 years, by a team, led by Mr. Smallwood, whose members must either accept his decisions, or resign from office.

Of course, some are only too happy to remain, if only to better serve their own interest - even at the expense of the public interest. Now, Mr. Smallwood would have us believe (as he attempted to while answering questions on the CBC-TV Program: "We Want An Answer") that: "Conflict of interest is involved only when a member of the government, because of his other business interests, is unable to devote sufficient time to properly serve the government and his constituency."

On the contrary, this is only one facet of the many, that may comprise a conflict of interest. "Where any member of a government uses privileged or confidential information obtained through his association with the government to his own advantage." This also, is conflict of interest!

Now, let us not forget men like Dr. Herbert Pottle (the first Minister of Welfare in the Smallwood Cabinet and the first member to Publicly resign). Messrs. Wells, Earle, Hickman, Crosbie - among others, who had the courage and the conviction to resign their office because of a conflict of interest between subservience to Premier Smallwood's autocratic rule on the one hand, and their duty to the electorate on the other.

Of course, it would be too much to expect another political party, while in power not to engage in some form of conflict. However, the scale in which the present administration has indulged, is simply scandalous!

Mr. Smallwood, who once said, that "Hitler was a great man," failed to pay tribute to Dr. Goebels, Hitler's Minister of propaganda, who once remarked: "If you lie often enough to the people, eventually they will begin to believe you!"

Finally, I would like to conclude with Mr. Smallwood's words while campaigning on the street corners of the United States in the early twenties: "...And now, ladies and gentlemen, it's time for a change in our government!"

F.L. Boulos,
Carbonear.

COMMENTS ON LEGGE STATEMENT

The Editor,
The Aurora,
Labrador City

Sir:

Please permit me space in your paper to comment on the very recent statements made by Mr. Roy Legge, the Liberal hopeful for Labrador West, in the free time political broadcast made on behalf of the Liberal Party.

Now for the majority of people here in Labrador West, Mr. Legge is a political nobody who just happened to parachute onto the political scene suddenly as the Minister of Labor. Exactly how someone can get to be a cabinet minister without ever being elected by the people is beyond me and furthermore, straight from the ranks of management. Could Mr. Legge ever give an impartial view in the event that he ever had to settle a labor dispute?

Pertaining to the political broadcasts that I mentioned at the beginning, it would certainly appear that the Honourable Mr. Legge has been hard at work. He himself has taken care of the provincial building in a short three weeks; he has built the park at Duley Lake up to the point that it will be ready for next summer; he has opened the road to Mount Wright; he has arranged for the school buses this winter; he has already negotiated three extra doctors for this area and lastly, he is deeply concerned about the lack of communications here. Yessir, if one were to really believe all this tripe, one would have to agree that Mr. Legge deserves a pat on the back.

However, I'm sorry to inform Mr. Legge, that he did not do one of the things that he is trying to take credit for. The one man who does deserve the credit for trying to obtain these things is Mr. Tom Burgess, the Leader of the New Labrador Party. If you doubt my word Mr. Legge, you have only to check the official document of the House of Assembly called Hansard. Tom Burgess has been actively trying to attain for Labrador an equality with the rest of Canada ever since he was elected and he will continue to do so because the New Labrador Party will win the three seats in Labrador.

I'm sure though, that Mr. Legge would have made a good colleague of the Honourable Premier because he probably puppets as well as he parrots.

"No Fool"

RATHER FIGHT THAN SWITCH?

The Editor
The Aurora
Dear Sir:

Do you have a problem trying to get through to some people? Do you also know that some people would rather fight than switch?

The point I am trying to make is this; for the past years most people voted for their favorite party which they thought would do the most good. There is absolutely nothing wrong with that, but would you think that as the years past some people would realize they made a mistake. YES, some people did but others didn't, they would rather fight than switch.

Each year these poor people are brain-washed into believing things that a ten year old child would see to be false. For example, it seems that every election everything starts sprouting up everywhere. There is equipment on the roads that nobody saw before, but as usual only for a while then they will go back into the parking lot until next election.

Oh, we must not forget the sod turning. I am sure if we collected all these sods we could probably have enough gravel to make a good topping for our road to the Quebec Border which Lundrigan Construction built, but was financed by QCM.

Did you know who built this road; or were you led to believe somebody else built it. If so I guess the joke is on them, because now you know the truth. This is what I mean when I say it is almost impossible to believe how naive some grownup people can be but yes it's true.

A lot of people are saying of course I have to vote this way, because I don't see what the New Labrador Party can do if they get in.

Will these people ask themselves what did anybody else ever do or say for Gods little acre.

For some time I wondered what outsiders thought of the people in Labrador and would you believe that the answer is this. How can people making so much money have anything to worry about, and what could possibly be their problem. Did it ever occur to these people that people with lots of money get sick. People with lots of money need doctors so they can spend their money. People with lots of money buy cars and need roads to drive them on. People in Labrador making plenty of money pay high taxes and get nothing in return for it.

Now ask yourself who wants all these things for the people of Labrador and who will succeed in getting these things if he can get the people of Labrador to get him three seats in the House. My God if you don't know by now let me help you with a little Hint. NEW LABRADOR PARTY.

In closing, let me leave you with a little advise. DON'T BE BRAIN WASHED THIS YEAR.

If you live in Labrador, and vote any other way but New Labrador Party, and win, you still lose.

You might just as well stick your finger in your mouth and the other wherever you see fit and keep it there for the next five years. You will have obtained nothing.

NAIL DRIVING COSTS $200.00: Quebec - Laborer Adrien Lebel was fined $200.00 and costs recently for driving nails with a hammer. Lebel, caught in the act by a labor department inspector, pleaded guilty to the charge of being found in possession of a carpenter's tool contrary to provincial regulations. Lebel's employer, contractor Romeo Fiset of suburban Giffard, was also fined $200 and costs for having carpentry work done by a laborer. Order-in-council 4793 makes it illegal for a laborer to be found in possession of a hammer on a construction site in Quebec province.

BRITISH UNEMPLOYED: The number of registered unemployed in Britain at mid-September was 918,122, compared with 904,190 at mid-August, the Department of employment and Productivity reports.

CNTU URGES YEAR'S PAY: Montreal - The 220,000-member Confederation of National Trade Union called on governments recently to force companies laying off employees to keep them on the payroll for one year after the date of the layoff. "Since enterprises aim at minimizing costs of production, they will then feel the pressure and will have the responsibility for reclassifying with all speed the manpower that they have laid off," said CNTU president Marcel Pepin, speaking in the name of the federation's confederal bureau. It is the body that ordinarily makes policy between conventions and includes, in addition to the five-man executive, a representative of each of the 12 member federations and the 20 regional associations.

MORE WOMEN IN LABOR FORCE: More than 40 per cent of Canadian women will be part of the labor force by 1980 and more than ever before will be young mothers, the women's bureau of the Ontario department of labor said last month. The bureau said in a study just released that the labor force is expected to absorb 100,000 new women members each year for the next decade. "Proportionately fewer women are expected to leave the labor force during the child-bearing age group of 25 to 34 years. The labor force participation of this age group is expected to increase from 36.2 to 40 per cent in the next 20 years," said the report. It predicts that over-all fertility rates will continue to decline "while net immigration will play a less significant role in population increase than in the past."

The Labor Front

LACK OF QUALIFIED PERSONNEL: There is a shortage of qualified persons available to act as chairman of arbitration boards says Rolf Hattenhauer, acting chairman of the newly-formed executive committee of the Newfoundland and Labrador Labor Management Cooperation Committee. Mr. Hattenhauer says the problem is more acute in Labrador and central Newfoundland. The committee is presently looking for persons to fill these posts. One suggestion has been to look at some arrangement which would provide for using people with a labor relations background as trainees who would eventually be accepted by the committee as chairmen.

The committee is also arranging for the building of a library of arbitration board decisions which would be retained in the offices of the provincial department of labor. The new committee, which held its first meeting September 4 at Memorial University, is comprised of five members appointed by the federation of labor, two from the chamber of commerce and one member each from the St. John's board of trade, the manufacturer's association and the Newfoundland construction association. It was set up to explore areas in which labor and management can work to their mutual benefit.

AIR CANADA PILOTS TOP PAY — $44,000: Air Canada's pilots have been given a raise which will bring some of their annual salaries to as much as $44,000. All salaries for the 1,100 pilots in the Crown-owned airline go up by an average of 7½ per cent. The top wage of $44,000 plus a wide range of employee benefits go to the captain of a Boeing 747 jumbo jet. This is still some $10,000 less than the equivalent wage for a pilot in the U.S. flying the same equipment. An Air Canada Viscount captain earns about $23,000 a year, while his colleagues in a DC-8 gets $33,000.

Vanguard captains earn $28,000 and DC-8 captains about $30,000 a year. The 15-month contract "was a unique one," says airline president John Baldwin. "It was arrived at before the expiration of the present agreement on October 31 and without resorting to the procedures usually involved in labor negotiations." Salaries for first and second officers are lower than those of the captains, but the airline did not make public those figures. The men will work shorter hours for their higher pay since Air Canada is reducing the number of hours a pilot is allowed to fly per month to 75 from 80.

CIL: The Valleyfield, Que., plant of Canadian Industries Limited of Montreal says it may lay off between 60 and 70 workers within one month if the firm gets no new military contracts; its last military order is being filled now. Following initial layoffs, another 300 workers maybe laid off the staff of 600 at the plant.

GENERAL AVIATION: British Overseas Airways Corp., will lay off its 31 Montreal ground-service employees on November 1 to reduce costs, replacing them with a private contractor, General Aviation Services Limited of Montreal. General Aviation handles BOAC baggage-checking in Montreal, and has been handling passengers and baggage for BOAC at Toronto for the past 10 years. BOAC is negotiating with General Aviation to absorb some of the employees affected. Others may be placed elsewhere in BOAC.

SAVAGE SHOES: Savage Shoes Limited of Preston plans to close its 180-employee Galt plant. About 37.5 per cent of the plant's production will be transferred to Preston. Savage also has plants in Fergus and London, Ont. Blamed for the closing is a 7.1 per cent drop in the sales of Canadian-produced women's shoes.

WORLD COUNCIL: Labor groups are consolidating themselves into a world trade union council to give them a better chance to deal with multi-national enterprises, according to a Geneva Labor official. Charles Levinson, general secretary of the International Federation of Chemical and General Workers' Unions, said the council will represent workers in the leading corporations "because this is where we want to extend the pressure." Last month he told the 29th convention of the 193,000-member International Brotherhood of Pulp, Sulphite and Paper Mill Workers "the days that a multi-national company can take us on one at a time are over - they'll have to take all of us on."

By D. R. Parsons
Consider your ways

Haggai 1:7

The Four Messages of Haggai were addressed to the people after their long captivity, and he commanded them to consider their ways. They were reminded that God could not bless them while their Temple lay in ruins. The people argued that the time was not right for reconstruction, and in their appeals they proved their selfishness. When they stopped to consider and change their ways, God visited them and said, "From this day will I bless you." (Haggai 2:19) Even their fruit and grain increased manifold because of His hand upon them for good.

The message to "consider your ways" should impress our hearts during our quiet times of devotion with the Lord. How much time is spent for ourselves in relation to the time we give to the Lord? Is the ratio sadly out of balance? "Consider your ways." Does complaining come from our lips more than praise? Is it possible that meditation gives way to murmuring? "Consider your ways." Do petty irritations have their way of rubbing into our lives, in turn inflicting scars on others? "Consider your ways." The writer of Proverbs said, "In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths." (Proverbs 3:6.) And He will!

In considering our ways, as in the time of Haggai, true repentance will bring the ultimate blessing of God. He will pour out His abundance in the riches of His grace and peace. His power and presence will be overwhelming. We will grasp a new urgency to be strong and work, and strength for the task will be available. How long has it been since we set a goal for God? Possibly a long-neglected friend needs encouragement, or a neighbour needs to know the Lord. Have we in faith accepted the challenge as an opportunity for His glory? It is said that people who are going places have to be willing to take risks to get there. Going with God is not a risk, for He will "keep thee in all places whither thou goest." (Genesis 28:15.)

The president of a corporation said, "Part of the talent or genius of the goal-setter is the ability to distinguish between the possible and the impossible-plus the willingness to get very close to the latter." Our God said, "The things which are impossible with men are possible with God." (Luke 18:27.) "Consider your ways."

TOO LATE: A Long Time Secretary said to her Long Time Boss: "What are you going to get me for Christmas?"
Boss: "I thought I'd get you a box of lace-trimmed silk panties."
Secretary: "I don't wear panties."
Boss: "Why didn't you tell me that when we were younger?"

Mining News

IRON ORE SHIPMENTS: August Iron Ore shipments from Great Lakes ports in the United States and Canada totalled 7,878,863 gross tons, down from 10,674,788 a month ago, the American Iron Ore Association reports. For the year to date, shipments from U.S. and Canadian Great Lakes ports were 42,342,778 gross tons, off from 46,775,840 a year earlier. Shipments from Canadian ports for August were 527,402 tons, compared with 741,676, and for the year-to-date 3,897,195 compared with 4,434,949.

ALL HEART: "You have to fall back on gut feelings when it comes to metal stocks," observed Mr. Brian Carter, mining analyst at Loewen Ondaatje, McCutcheon & Co., at the Toronto Society of Financial Analysts' annual meeting last month. He predicted world copper prices would climb to 60 cents a pound within a year (from 46 cents today), plus an 11 per cent gain for the Toronto base metal index. He also thinks silver, sharply depressed recently, will recover some lost ground.

REPUBLIC STEEL: Republic Steel Corp. of Cleveland will close its iron ore mine at Port Henry, N.Y., near Lake Champlain, putting 400 out of work. The company says the high cost of underground mining makes the mine's output non-competitive with iron ores available from other sources.

CANADA TUNGSTEN: Canada Tungsten Mining Corp., said it has intersected scheelite mineralization in two drill holes at its Flat River, Northwest Territories property. One hole, 1,800 feet north of the northern limits of the present orebody, averaged 0.74 per cent tungsten and 0.16 per cent copper from 1,236 feet to 1,336 feet. Another hole, drilled from the same location to intersect the ore at a distance of some 100 feet averaged 1.56 per cent tungsten and 1.27 per cent copper from 1,201 feet to 1,283 feet. Fred E. Hall, Canada Tungsten president, said the attitude of the zone isn't known and that drilling is continuing.

NEW IMPERIAL: Shareholders of New Imperial Mines Limited of Vancouver have approved a change of name to Whitehorse Copper Mines Limited, and a $6.85-million refinancing plan to bring the company's Little Chief and Middle Chief underground orebodies into production. Hudson Bay Mining and Smelting Company Limited and Anglo Corp. of Canada Limited both of Toronto, will provide the financing by purchasing 9 per cent first mortgage bonds and providing $1.9-million in cash.

3-YEAR PERIOD OF COPPER SURPLUS: Sir Mark Turner, deputy chairman of Rio

Tinto-Zinc Corp., says he expects a slight surplus of supply over demand in copper in the next two or three years, when a number of new copper mines are to start operation. He told a U.S. investment fund executives' conference that he expects demand will catch up with supply in "due time". However, he cautioned it is "almost impossible" to accurately forecast the supply-demand prospects for copper, partly because much of the world's copper output can be affected by politically related developments.

He said Rio Tinto-Zinc foresees strong demand for uranium in the Nineteen Eighties, particularly from Japan. Until the early Nineteen Eighties, he said it may be difficult to find any firm long-term business in uranium. The company plans to develop an open-cast uranium mining operation in Rossing, Southwest Africa, expected to come into production in the mid-Nineteen Seventies. J.R. Robinson, Rio Tinto-Zinc's finance director, said copper and iron ore will for "some time to come" be the main contributors to company profit. He noted that in 1972, two major copper projects in which the firm is engaged will start production. They are at the Lornex operation in British Columbia that is to start production about next April, and on Bougainville, one of the Solomon Islands, an operation the firm previously said will start production in mid-1972. Mr. Robinson said the revaluation of the yen would not have much effect in itself, but Rio-Tinto-Zinc might be affected by Japanese economic developments that might result from a revaluation.

Fred Moore gave a brief run down of last years party. He stated that the committee operated well within their available budget and after paying off an outstanding debt from the year before had a balance of $47.06 remaining in the bank. Also there were almost four hundred gifts left over after last years party, these were turned over to the Roman Catholic Church in Wabush and were forwarded to communities on the Labrador coast for DISTRIBUTION.

Mr. Moore outlined some of the plans for this year's event, which, if possible, will include a parade of floats. The committee agreed to meet again on last Saturday. The party is financed by donations from local organizations and business firms.

CAPT. Wm. JACKMAN LADIES AUXILIARY: Do you like "happenings?" There will be one of interest to ladies of Wabush and Labrador City on Saturday, November 13. There are lovely knitted articles, crochet dollies and centre pieces, and embroidery. The "paper table" is a new addition this year. On it will be an assortment of goods whose basic construction is paper. The white elephant table is an exciting table to explore. In tempt your appetite turn to the pantry tables for home-baked goods, jams, jellies etc. For the children there will be a fish pond. Do plan to come, enjoy a cup of tea and help the ladies support your local hospital. Tickets can be purchased at the door or from any member of the Jackman Memorial Hospital Auxiliary.

The Lighter Side

STABILIZERS: Jacques Nosari, in a travel article in France Information, an official publication:

"Another successful cruise will be starting out for its second annual autumn run. Aboard the liner Gallion will be 250 single people who will be housed in a strictly single cabins — at least at the start. To be allowed to take part in this cruise the passengers must prove they are unmarried and swear on their honor that they are not boarding the ship with somebody they know. What happens next is not written in the brochures. Anyway, I am informed the ship is equipped with stabilizers to prevent it rocking even in the calmest waters."

A NEW SPORT: The first man said, "My wife suggested that I take up a new sport."

The second man said, "Well, that's nice. Shows she has your interests at heart. Did she make any suggestions?"

"As a matter of fact, she did," said the first man. "By the way, how do you play this Russian Roulette?"

SECOND HAND: "Look at the lovely ring Jack gave me last night. It fits beautifully."

"Yes, it's very nice, dear. It was a bit tight on me."

PLAYING THE MARKET: An investor was telling a friend about his stock market dealings.

"I put half in paper towels and half in revolving doors," he said. "What happened?" inquired the friend.

"I was wiped out before I could turn around."

EXPERIENCED: A desperate man went to an employment office and told them he's take any kind of job, anywhere in the world, for any kind of money. The interviewer shuffled his cards and said, "Here's a good job in Florida. Can you pick lemons?" The man replied, "Can I pick lemons? I've been married five times!"

ONE ADVANTAGE: "You can talk about bald heads all you want," said the baldheaded man, defensively, "but there's one thing you've got to admit — I'm always the first to know when it starts raining."

STRATEGY: When a sailor at a Navy swimming class refused to dive from a 30-foot platform, the instructor asked him: "What would you do if you were that high up on a sinking ship?"

"Sir," said the student, "I'd wait for it to sink another 20 feet."

THE OTHER KIND: The receptionist told a new secretarial applicant, "While waiting for your interview, you have displayed a great deal of bosom, thigh and fanny. I must tell you that attitude will be of no help to you here. To impress OUR boss, you should have sent your brother."

HE TRUST'S HER: "I suppose that now you are married you will be taking out some insurance?" the agent asked the new husband.

"Oh, no," replied the bridegroom. "I don't think she's dangerous."

NO EXTRA WORK, PLEASE: Workers in a large company were making secret plans to hold a big office party for the 60-year-old cleaning lady who had spent the better part of her life with the company. Somehow, the secret leaked out and the woman got wind of it. Much perturbed, she rushed to the office manager.

"Please sir," she cried, "don't let them do it!"

"Oh, come now, you mustn't be modest," said the manager. "After all, they simply want to show the great esteem in which you're held."

"Esteem, my eye!" exclaimed the woman. "I'm not going to clean up after a mess like that!"

CAROL PLAYERS

Following close on the heels of the successful presentation by the theatrical group known as Les Jeunes Comediens du Theatre du Nouveau Monde on Monday night, October 18, 1971, to a well-filled auditorium of keen supporters of the live theatre here,

The Corner Brook Playmakers of Corner Brook, Newfoundland, present "The Far-Off Hills". (An Irish Comedy), in Notre Dame Academy, on Saturday, October 30 and Sunday, October 31 at 8 p.m.

The Playmakers are an amateur theatrical group of very keen aspiring actors and actresses and they and their predecessors have been providing enjoyable entertainment in Corner Brook and also at Newfoundland Drama Festivals, since some twenty years. Since the Carol Players and the Playmakers have been meeting and competing at The Newfoundland Drama Festivals over the past two seasons, The Playmakers have been very anxious to have the opportunity to visit and perform here. At last, after lengthy correspondence and much planning by the Carol Players and The Playmakers, the day has arrived.

The play (THE FAR-OFF HILLS by LENOX ROBINSON) will be directed by NEIL WALSH, with a cast of ten people (not thousands), and five people to handle lighting, costumes, make-up, sets, and all the other thousand-and-one details which a production creates. The players will be arriving on Saturday, October 30, and will be guests of the Carol Players during their stay here.

Tickets for either of the performances will be available at the door, or from any member of The Carol Players, the Drugstore or the Bookstore in Labrador City.

Remember the Corner Brook Players in, "The Far-Off Hills" at Notre Dame Academy, Saturday, October 30 and Sunday, October 31, at 8 p.m. Adults: $2.00, Students: $1.00

THE LEGION AGAIN

Comrade Poppy Fund suggested that the time has come when this group, "The Ways and Means Committee" must dwell a pause and consider the most important day of the "LEGION YEAR.....REMEMBRANCE DAY."

He suggests that time is a great healer and the bad days of the war have a tendency to be forgotten which is a good thing for the most part; but must we forget so well that there is no recall left? True if we were able to ask the men who laid down their lives for their country, "Why?" There would be no lofty ideals presented, for the most part all they had was the realization that our way of life was in danger.

Although not perfect it was and is the best in the world, futher they knew it was up to the little man to defeat it. Today we who are left wonder if they have been let down, but upon closer examination we will find that we their Comrades have been remiss in our duties and have permitted apathy to rule our actions. We do not tell the young people that we do not glorify war, and shudder at the cost in lives of our young people it causes. We don't point out the advantages of our way of life where every one has the right of his own decision "Freedom to Think" and the right to express those thoughts Freedom of Speech. We to whom the "Torch was Thrown" must take up the challenge and assist the people who can't remember to "THINK"

Comrade Parade Marshall says that all is ready for Nov. 11th, he does a great job with our parade the only thing that can spoil it is a small turn out and only you can control that.

Comrade Padre told us that all is ready for the service which will be held at the Colligate at 10:00 A.M. on Nov. 11th. This a real nice service all the Padres in town take part in it "Freedom of Religion"

We very nearly lost Comrade Building Committee this week, he went to the Notre Dame Academy to give the Legion Award for the most outstanding students which was won by Jacqueline Lenord and Helen Rompre. During his trip he wandered into the Kinder Garten class and was so impressed that he wanted to stay, he claims the teachers are lovely. (Trust him to be where the pretty girls are.)

The matter of the cow seems to be solved, that boat load of cattle was for us. Comrade Treasurer went down and managed to give them away as pets to various people in Sept. Iles, butchers and such (something seems wrong there) He has kept a nice white cow for us. So now we will have a good supply of milk to go with our tea.

Remember the next time you see a man with a Legion Pin in his lapel he wants you to "Think."

Roaming the Globe

PORTUGAL: NEW HOME AWAY FROM HOME FOR CANADIANS: It looks as though Canadians are having a long-drawn-out love affair with this country. At home, we eat Portuguese tomato paste ($3.7 million worth last year) and drink Portuguese wine ($6.2 million). Now we're buying holiday or retirement homes here (55 in the first five months this year) and 47,000 of us came as tourists in 1970 — a 22 per cent increase over the year before. When TAP Portuguese Airways started its thrice-weekly Montreal-Lisbon flights this spring, it put the seal of permanence onto the relationship. CP Air has been flying to Lisbon since 1957. Flights were bumped to five times a week not long ago. The reason for this growing friendship is that Portugal has many of the attributes that appeal to Canadians. The people are outgoing, big-hearted and not jaundiced by a massive flow of tourists through their small country. Excluding the neighboring Spaniards, only 1.7 million foreign visitors were around in 1970 — no visitor interest in Portuguese activities is appreciated.

At the new Azeitaowinery (just south of Lisbon) of the J.M. Da Fonseca Internacional Lta., a company official told me visitors could appear at any working hour and they would be shown around the plant. Particularly Canadians. We drink a lot of this company's Faisca rose, and are the first market where Terras Alta, an eight-year-old still red wine, has caught on. As in Spain and Greece, Portuguese prices are still at the level where a dollar goes much further than it does here at home. A double room in high season in the best hotels can run $14 a day; add two meals for each person for $10 more. The only catch is that if you sign on for meals and eat elsewhere, you still pay the same tab. So make your position clear when making your reservation and when checking in.

Go to a government "pousada" which, like the Spanish "paradores," usually are built in old forts or castles, and you pay as little as $9 a day double with breakfast. One at this price that I visited overlooked the sea at Setubal, had four-poster twin beds and a spotlessly clean bathroom. Needless to say, reservations should be made months in advance at these spots, and the time limit on your stay is set at five days. There are other bargains. Tradesmen hover around the tourists buses offering hand-worked table linen. A 72-inch cloth with cutwork of lace inserts, including a dozen napkins, can be had for $10. Smaller sizes are less. A bed-spread in some small towns goes for $5. Crocheted dresses are still only $24.50 (though three years ago they were half that amount). Shoes and suede purses are about half the Canadian price. There are uncluttered beaches in abundance. The 150-mile stretch running south to the Mediterranean from Lisbon is all but unused. Even in the Algarve region in the south, which rocketed into popularity in recent years, one can always get away from the crowd. The other heavily used area is the Costa do Sol, which is the 15-mile piece of coastline running north from Lisbon to Estoril and Cascais.

Estoril gained fame as a resort during World War II when many of Europe's royalty settled there. Some still maintain Estoril homes. The city's casino dates back to 1923, although the present lavish structure, which is fronted by magnificent gardens stretching a long block, was constructed in 1968. There are boutiques here and you can dine, see an international floor show as well as play roulette, black jack or baccarat. It costs little more than $1 (30 escudos) to get into the gaming room — and the same ticket is good a second night. Cascais, just two miles down the road has grown far beyond the picturesque fishing village of 10 years back. New hotels and boutiques have mushroomed, but so far they are still part of a relaxing background. One airline stewardess who comes regularly to Cascais says: "It's still a good vacation spot without being 'resort-y.'" The beaches along the Costa do Sol are crowded in summer with Portuguese, but grab a cab in Cascais and five miles and $2 away is a spread of sand a mile long and hundreds of feet deep that you will share with fewer than a dozen people. This is at Guincho, situated by Cabo da Roca which is the westernmost tip of land in Europe.

At best, there are four small inns here of 30 rooms or less. Best known (because of a 30-year reputation for its food) is the Muchaxo. It serves a good chicken but specializes in seafood of all varieties — several types and sizes of lobster, prawns, oysters, even barnacles (for a silledish) which look like a dried up sponge. Local travel is cheap. Taxis are astoundingly inexpensive and electric trains in the Lisbon area give excellent service for pennies. They run every 15 minutes in rush hour, every half-hour at other times. A 35-minute ride (which it is to Estoril, Cascais or Sintra) costs only 25 cents in the first class section. This means one can have the best of both worlds — a resort area and city facilities. Lisbon is an appealing city built around seven hills with many lovely squares, such as Praca do Comercio (Black Horse Square) which is one of the largest and most beautiful in Europe. Another is Praca Dom Pedro IV, better known as Rossio and the nerve centre of the city. The railway station is here, as are sidewalk cafes and newsstands. Between five and seven in the evening it seems that everyone has agreed to meet at Rossio and it is all but impossible to flag down a taxi.

Just off the square is the best boutique area — along Rua Garrett, Rua do Carmo and Rua da Trindade. The main street Avenida do Liberdade, which is longer and wider than the Champs Elyees of Paris, also leads from this point. Lisbon is a city where you want to get out and walk, particularly in the Alfama, the old section and the only one left from the earthquake of 1755. Streets are narrow and winding and of an evening (9 p.m. or later) you can stop in a Fado restaurant to eat or drink wine and hear the melancholy and peculiar-to-Lisbon type of singing. Traditionally, the singer is a young woman dressed in black and wrapped in a black shawl. Accompanied by a guitar and viola, she will sing of the problems and sorrows of love and life. Lights are low, wine glasses are full and few people are unmoved by the sentiment.

COLD SHOULDER:

I go to work and sniff and wheeze
And someone's always sure to sneeze
And tell me, in accusing terms
I'm spreading all my horrid germs.

But if I stay at home in bed
And coddle my colossal head
Someone else is sure to scold
"You stayed out sick with just a cold?"

HOLIDAY WHEN SUN SHINES: Students and teachers of Fauske high school in Norway were given a day off recently because the sun shone. Fauske is about 50 miles north of the Arctic Circle but the usual midnight sun had been cloud-covered for weeks. And the district recorded its wettest summer in 50 years. So when the sun came out, the high school headmaster ordered everybody outdoors. "We simply wouldn't miss it," he said. From November on, Fauske won't see the sun for four months.

Speaking of Sports

HOCKEY: As of latest reports the "A" league should begin regular play next week. Present plans call for "Juniors" to play in "A" until Christmas. At that time this entry will be reviewed as to their capabilities. If found to be in same competitive class as Huskies, Braves and Saints they will remain in League.

This team has a lot of hockey ahead during the next couple of months as they will also be participating in "B" league with Indians and Huskies.

Industrial League has already started their schedule and we will have more information next week.

The minor Hockey League will commence this week and a schedule will be printed next week. An Invitational Pee Wee Tournament will take place again this year. Teams from major centres on the island, Sept Iles and Schefferville will compete at Labrador City Arena 27-28-29 December.

ARTS & CRAFTS: Both programs are filled and are unable to accommodate further entrants at this time.

BROOMBALL: This league is already underway. First standings next week.

MINOR HOCKEY: The League would like to thank Mr. Jack Drover who recently conducted a Minor Hockey Clinic for coaches of the area. Twenty to twenty-five turned out for the various sessions. All agreed the clinic helped them to be better prepared for this season. Again—thanks, Jack.

WABUSH RECREATION ASSOCIATION

HALLOWEEN PARTY for the children of Wabush, aged 5 to 13 years, will be on Oct. 31st at 3:30 p.m. FREE refreshments and a 45 minute colour cartoon movie will be shown. There will also be music to listen or dance to and a BIG dip into the barrel of kisses. All children must wear a costume.

There will not be a TEEN Discotheque the 5th of November but a special dance, featuring the Chevelles, will be held the Friday before on Oct. 29th. It's a Masquerade Dance so we expect you to wear a costume. Admission is less if you have a costume on; also, several prizes will be given out during the dance. The fun starts at 8:30 p.m.

MOVIES are shown every Saturday at 2 p.m. for those 13 years and under and at 8 p.m., a double feature, for those 14 years and over. Names of the movies are posted at the Recreation Centre every week.

With snow all around us, we can't help but think of Christmas and what a lovely thought that can be too, especially to the children. There's going to be a great day for them at the Recreation Centre this year. Surveyors are already knocking on the doors of Wabush residents to see how many children there are so they can pass the message on to Santa as he will be visiting our town. Santa has been very busy making up special toys for the boys and girls and is very anxious to meet them. Preparations are also being made for a GRAND Santa Claus Parade so that all Moms, Dads, Grannies, Grampas, Aunts and Uncles can wave and say hello as he passes by.

LEFT BEHINDS... We have quite an assortment of clothing, earrings etc. here that people have left behind and not reclaimed. We don't mind storing them for a couple of weeks but we're getting snowed under. So, if you think that some of it belongs to you, come and see. Useable items will be given away by the end of the week.

See you soon,
Dee D'Ganigian

RECORD DOCKET: The Supreme Court of Canada faced a record docket of 115 appeals when it began its fall session on Oct. 5. However, Chief Justice Gerald Fauteux and the eight other judges will manage to hear only about 50 of the appeals by the time the session ends during Christmas week. The remaining appeals will be placed at the top of the list for hearing when the court's winter session starts in January.

HAREM OF MALES: Nadia Askalani, a rich 24-year-old Baghdad beauty, thought it was unfair that only men could have harems. So she decided to have one of her own—with seven men. It couldn't be done openly, so she told each man she was a nurse with only one night off per week. She was discovered when two of her 'husbands' met in a coffee house, and chanced to discuss their one-night-a-week life. Nadia has been jailed for seven months.

NAME GAME: Charles Boggs of Los Angeles was on a charter flight to Paris. Fiancee Edith Steiner of Boston was on a charter flight to Rome. They agreed to meet in Monaco the day after landing. Boggs arrived by train in plenty of time, but almost called the police because Edith was two days late. Upon arrival, she apologized that she had boarded the railroad car marked Monaco, and discovered too late that in Italian Monaco means Munich.
