J.S. ROBINSON PUBLISHER

THE FOLLOWING IS THE REVIEW IN THE WINNIPEG TRIBUNE BY THEIR ENTERTAINMENT EDITOR, MR. FRANK MORRIS; FOLLOWING THE PERFORMANCE OF THE CAROL PLAYERS PRODUCTION OF "SPOON RIVER ANTHOLOGY" AT THE DOMINION DRAMA FESTIVAL IN WINNIPEG, MAY 18 - 23rd.

"THE ADJUDICATION GUY BEAULNE, OF QUEBEC, GAVE THE CAROL PLAYERS OF LABRADOR CITY, NEWFOUNDLAND, AT THE SECOND NIGHT OF THE DOMINION DRAMA FESTIVAL IN THE PLAYHOUSE THEATRE, WAS THE MOST WANTONLY SUMMATION I'VE HEARD IN A GOOD MANY YEARS OF ATTENDING THESE AFFAIRS.

"AFTER ADMITTING HE WAS AT A LOSS, AND WITH A PROFESSIONAL ACTOR'S FEELING FOR LETTING A PREGANT PAUSE REACH FRUITION, MR. BEAULNE LAUNCHED INTO A DESTRUCTIVE ANALYSIS OF EVERYTHING HE FOUND WRONG WITH THE PLAY. HE EVEN REFUSED TO DISCUSS INDIVIDUAL PERFORMANCES. IN A PREAMBLE TO THE SLAUGHTER HE DID SAY THAT THE PRODUCTION OF EDGAR LEE MASTERS' SPOON RIVER ANTHOLOGY CALLED FOR ONE OF TWO THINGS: CLEVER TECHNIQUE OR NEARLY RELIGIOUS INVOLVEMENT.

"CLEVER TECHNIQUE THIS SMALL, DEDICATED, AND VASTLY TALENTED LITTLE GROUP OF NEWFOUNDLANDERS DID NOT POSSESS, BUT THEY DID HAVE A QUALITY OF RELIGIOUS INVOLVEMENT AND IT MADE THE EVENING ONE OF THOSE OCCASIONS WHICH TRANSCENDED PROFESSIONALISM AND BROUGHT AN AUDIENCE CLOSE TO SOMETHING THAT WAS VERY SIMPLE, VERY UNCOMPLICATED, AND VERY SWEET.

"MISS PATRICIA CARROLL BROWN, WHO WAS SENT IN TO HELP THE PLAYERS, CHOSE A DIFFICULT TASK FOR THEM, BUT ONE WHICH THEY FELT DEEPLY AND TRUSTFULLY. IT IS NOTHING BUT AN EVENING OF SHORT SKETCHES GLEANED FROM THE BOOK BY A MAN WHO LOOKED BACK AT HIS YOUTH IN A SMALL ILLINOIS TOWN, AND FOUND IT UGLY, RUEFUL AND DRY IN HIS MOUTH. BUT HE HAD A GIFT OF THE LYRIC WORD, AND THE SOARING PHRASE. HE COULD ETCH A CHARACTER IN A FEW WORDS, AND HE COULD MAKE YOU FEEL THE PAIN OF LIVING, AND A LITTLE (VERY LITTLE) OF THE JOY OF LIFE.

"THIS, THEN, IS THE KIND OF PLAY THE LABRADOR CAST FACED. WHAT HAPPENED DURING MISS BROWN'S TENURE MUST HAVE BEEN A SMALL MIRACLE. SHE MUST HAVE ELICITED FROM HER CAST A PERFECT TRUST, AND THEY ALLOWED HER TO SHAPE THEM IN THE MOULD SHE HAD CHOSEN WITHOUT LOSING THEIR OWN IDENTITY. THE HOURS AND HOURS OF WORK, THE POLISHING OF DETAILED NUANCES, THE CAREFUL AND RHYTHMIC RESPONSE TO THE METRE OF SPEECH, ARE ONLY SOME OF THESE MATTERS.

"AND WHAT LOVELY SPEECH IT WAS. MR. BEAULNE'S REACTIONS TO THESE BEAUTIFUL VOICES, WHICH HAD A LILT, WAS THAT THE MEN WERE ALL TENORS AND THE WOMEN ALL SOPRANOS. SHEER NONSENSE.

CONTINUED

"THE VARIOUS SKETCHES WHICH MADE UP THE EVENING WERE INTERSPERSED WITH SINGING OF THE MOST ARTLESS AND UNAFFECTED KIND EXACTLY THE RIGHT NOTE FOR FOLK MUSIC.

"IF THERE HAD BEEN ANY CYNICISM ABOUT IT (AND MASTERS SUPPLIED IT IN THE LINES WITHOUT PUSHING BY THE CAST) IT MIGHT HAVE BEEN JUST A MATTER OF AIRING DIRTY LINEN IN A SMALL TOWN. WE ENCOUNTERED GAMBLING MEN, MEAN MEN, SEXUALLY MALADJUSTED LOVERS. IT IS A MEAN GAMUT, BUT IT HAD ITS FLASHES OF COMPASSION.

"FOR INSTANCE, THE STORY OF AN ILLINOIS WOMAN WHO WENT ALL THE WAY TO WASHINGTON TO SEE HER FRIEND, ABRAHAM LINCOLN, ABOUT HER SOLDIER BOY WHO WAS IN A DISTRESSED CONDITION. MARGARET CHOREY, WHO ACTED THIS, AND ANOTHER SKETCH ABOUT A SCHOOL TEACHER MOURNING FOR A PUPIL, DID A BEAUTIFUL JOB.

"THERE WERE SO MANY, MANY THINGS TO ADMIRE, AND NOT A FEW TO REGRET. MR. BEAULNE WAS QUITE RIGHT IN SAYING THE SHOW HAD BEEN DESIGNED FOR A SMALL STAGE, BUT THE PLAYHOUSE DID ACCOMODATE THE CHARM, AND ALL THE WORDS DID NOT GO OVER.

"THE EVENING STARTED OUT WITH A CLEAR, COOL OFFSTAGE SOPRANO SINGING 'HE'S GONE AWAY'. IT SET THE TONE FOR THE WHOLE EVENING. THE SIMPLE SET, WITH PLAIN STOOLS, A SUGGESTION OF A CHURCH IN THE DISTANCE, WAS VERY EFFECTIVE, AND THE LIGHTING BY TONY DUARTE, IF IT DID NOT ALWAYS SUCCEED, WAS IMAGINATIVE. JUNE WHITFIELD'S COSTUMES, WHICH MR. BEAULNE THOUGHT UNBECOMING, SEEMED EXACTLY RIGHT TO ME.

"SOMETHING NICE COULD BE SAID FOR ALL THE CAST, AND THE NICEST THING WOULD BE THAT THEY WORKED AS AN UNSELFISH ENSEMBLE, NEVER SEEKING TO UPSTAGE EACH OTHER AND FOLLOWING, IN CAREFULLY TRAINED FASHION, THE DIRECTIONS THEY HAD LEARNED SO LOVINGLY.

"SO A BOW TO THEM ALL MARION CROCKWELL, DOROTHY ANN MATTHEWS, MARGARET GHORY, MARILYN WALTERS, JEAN FARR, JEROME DOYLE, ROY BABSTOCK, LARRY BAUER, CHRISTOPHER KOJAN, AND GRAHAM WHITE.

"I KEPT THINKING IT WAS A PITY THAT MUCH OF THE PLAY WAS SO CRUEL, AND CONJECTURING THE ABSOLUTE PURITY THEY COULD HAVE BROUGHT TO THORNTON WILDER'S OUR TOWN, OR AN EVENING WITH CARL SANDBURG.

"AND CERTAIN MEMBERS OF THE CAST HAD AN ADDED MEASURE OF TALENT. PARTICULARLY SO IN THE CASE OF JEAN FARR, BILLED AS THE LADY IN MAUVE. SHE HAS AN INSTINCTIVE FEELING FOR THE RIGHT INFLECTION, AND GESTURE AND COMPLETE IDENTIFICATION WITH WHAT SHE IS DOING. JEROME DOYLE, THE MAN IN BLACK, ALSO DESERVES AN EXTRA MEASURE OF PRAISE.

"I HOPE THE LABRADOR ACTORS GO BACK WITH THE FEELING THEY HAVE BROUGHT TO WINNIPEG SOMETHING VERY FRAGRANT, AND VERY SPECIAL. AND I'M SURE MANY, MANY OF THE AUDIENCE SHARED THESE SENTIMENTS."

Following the publication of the above editorial, Mr. Guy Beaulne made the following remarks prior to his adjudication of the Wednesday evening performance of the Montreal entry, "Survivors-Survivant":

"I have even seen a critic come to the rescue of a company." He asked for "the privilege to be at a loss once in a while", as he said he had been after the performance by the Carol Players of Spoon River Anthology.

Mr. Beaulne said that overnight "I have found my answer". For many years, he said, theatre people have been asking themselves the same question as to what can be validly be called theatre.

But, now, he is convinced that "we should be ready to accept all forms and all styles of theatrical experiences... and I say, if we do not accept these new forms, we are depriving ourselves of a greater possibility of enjoyment..."

Of the Newfoundland company, he said: "I did not for one moment dismiss the Newfoundland players. Their contribution is important and I respect it".

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE FINALISTS WILL BE FEATURED IN THE T.V. PROGRAMME "DOMINION DRAMA FESTIVAL" IN LAB. CITY/WAB. June 3rd, 8 - 9 pm.

POLLUTION, --- POLLUTION, --- Heard everywhere, - at all hours of day or night. Oh! But what is pollution? Is it the fouling of the air? Yes, in a way I suppose it is. Is it the saturating of streams with impurities? Yes, in some sense.

But the pollution I talk about is the one which does not really take away from our natural environment. -- Proceed out of any store in the shopping centre and you better watch out for it. WHAAAM.. You may be P O L L U T E D--it is a means of transportation on two wheels - going gayfully along the walk, dodging in and out the pedestrians. Or you may step on one if you are not extra watchfull.

Drive along any street, either town, be careful, this pollution can whip out at you from any direction.

Try to enter most driveways, - proceed with caution, as the pollution may be blocking this here-to-fore sacred ground.

The pollution I refer too in this case if you have not guessed is the bicycle, - once a safe and sensible means of transport.

Remembering back in my earlier years, the bicycle was a hand-me-down article, - and a boy was lucky if he was able to attain one when he was twelve or thirteen years old. And, it was practically a necessity as we had better than two miles to go to school. Also, a summer job consisted of hiring out to a neighbouring farmer up to ten miles away and, it was either walk or save enough for a bicycle. Then the bicycle was respected and cared for.

We would not think of leaving it laying around for someone to step on, or to get ran over. - We would not even drive on the wrong side of the road, because if our parents caught us, or a well-meaning adult (yes, we had them way back when) tattled on us, it may have meant losing the privilege of riding it for a week.

OH! HOW WE USED TO CARE FOR IT.

Yes, everyone is talking about pollution, so I thought I would get my two cents worth in also.

Regards.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR; ; ; ;

Dear Editor,

"Mixed up?" Hardly! Although, clear thinker may have been thinking clearly, she has misinterpreted my letter.

I am not trying to kill showers. In fact, I like them or rather for what they were, not what they are becoming. It is the extravagance and overcrowded ones that are destroying them. This, I had hoped would come to light through my letter. There are such showers. No, not rare, I go to many, and like the "showers are all wet," in the Aurora, I have heard such remarks about the cheap gift, "She could have done better than that," and so on. Some, by the way, would be unprintable.

"Inflation", I explained fully my individual opinion of the connection between the two.

As for special friends giving extra, I feel that I am a special friend to have been invited. This again was what I wrote on overcrowdedness. But I bow to your $1.00 gift, if this included bow, card, and paper, I bow low lower.

STILL FIGHTING

Dear Editor,

You are to be commended on your paper, the "Carol Link". It is getting better week by week. Your news is up to date and 'Nats' is very interesting with his fight against the things that "IRK" us. Glad to see Mudder is removed. It in my opinion was a horrible ending to a wonderful piece of writing. Keep it up.

I do miss the births, weddings, and holiday announcements. Is it possible to bring back?

There should be more inflation and pollution fighters. "Clear Thinker" may not be so clear. Any individual way of preventing the cost of living is to be commended.

To Your Paper -- GOOD WISHES

EDITOR'S COMMENT..

I wish to thank you for the compliments. I too, would like to get the weddings, showers, births, etc., announcements; but they are not passed along. I shall be only too happy to print any that are received by the Carol Link.

The Jackman Memorial Hospital Ladies Auxiliary held their closing supper at the Royal Canadian Legion in Wabush on May 25th. Fifty members and guests were present for a delicious cold buffet, after which a short business meeting was held. Mrs. Hammond, who chaired the meeting, expressed to Mrs. B.M. Monaghan, Mrs. C. Moseley and Mrs. G. Dunsmore, our regret of losing their active participator because they are leaving the community.

A donation of books and a monetary gift to be used for books for the pediatric ward, was received from the Junior Red Cross, Grade 6-4, Labrador City Collegiate. The children raised the money on their own and decided upon it's use themselves. This gesture was greatly appreciated.

The Ladies Auxiliary decided upon a worthwhile project for their fund raising efforts. This is the purchase of an apnea monitor to be used in the isolette infant incubator of the maternity ward. This piece of equipment is designed for use of premature babies and special care infants. A visual and oral alarm will be automatically given to the nurse to indicate that the baby has stopped breathing for so many seconds, which could be crucial in its care.

Mrs. Ivy Byrans then introduced the guest speaker, Mr. Arup Banerjee, who gave a most interesting commentary and slide presentation of Australia and his native India. To add to the Asial Atmosphere, three of the ladies were dressed in Indian Saris.

Mrs. Hammond closed the meeting by thanking the members for their co-operation throughout the previous year and hoped to see everyone and some new faces at the fall meetings which are held every fourth Monday of the month.

FOR AN EXPERTLY TRIMMED LAWN, PHONE FRED AT 944-5486.....

In last week's issue, we mentioned that a 10 oz. jar of Nescafe was a good special in one of our stores. In the 'Evening Telegram' (Wed. May 27) this same store in St. John's Newfoundland, was offering a 10 oz. jar of Nescafe at 28¢ less than their special here in Labrador City. All their food specials were considerably lower in St. John's, yet they were able to offer Lab. City the same clothing and furniture sales! WHY NOT FOOD??? For all the talk, the cost of living is not going down in our stores. A 2¢ or 3¢ mark down on some items and a 5¢ or 10¢ mark up on others seems to be the policy. The time for talking is past, and we need action NOW, not when we are left with a ghost town. There are families leaving the area for various reasons, but one reason they all have in common is the high cost of living. When will the stores realize they are "killing the goose".

NEWS RELEASE.

About Advertising.

The Better Business Bureau notes with concern that there is an increasing use, by advertisers, of outlandish superlative claims, which by their very nature are unproveable, usually not factual, and therefore misleading to readers or listeners.

The BBB lists the following misleading statements as the most prevalent examples: "BIGGEST SALE EVER;" "LOWEST PRICES;" "WE WILL NOT BE UNDERSOLD;" "NEVER BEFORE" or "NEVER AGAIN;" "BEST PRICE EVER;" and many other variations which no advertiser can prove. The BBB position is that no advertiser can reasonably know - even hour by hour - what all his competitors everywhere are doing; and even if factual at the moment of writing, the statement becomes untruthful immediately it is published due to the action of competitors

The BBB suggests that the buying public place little faith in superlative statements of this type; buying decisions should be based on comparison shopping for merchandise similar in quantity, quality and size in several stores. Your own best protection is "COMPARE - BEFORE YOU BUY."

"THE LEGION AND THE MONTH OF MAY"

The other evening we had a meeting of our "Ways and Means" committee, my favourite group. We do the most talking and accomplish the least.

At this meeting we decided to review what had been done during the month of "May 1970". Although our plans are never much, we are always surprised at how much we have accomplished.

First, with the help and we do mean the help, of all the citizens of Labrador City - Wabush, we celebrated the anniversary of VE Day we are sure as well as any place in Canada. We had as a guest speaker Col. Jack Marshall, MP, who had a first hand look at our conditions, 'the excellent TV, (a hockey game three weeks late), the state of the Lab. City - Wabush portion of the trans Canada highway, the fine means of communication with the outside world, (he almost didn't get in or out), his news paper which was one day old before he got it etc... He was annoyed and amazed at the conditions that we have come to accept as normal. Let us all hope he doesn't forget.

Our dart team won the "Northern Section" of the Newfoundland dart championships and although we were defeated in the all NFLD championships, we did at least convince them we are here. They elected comrade Dell Peck as President of the League.

Of course we had our own dart league party and for some reason or another we have noticed that the female members of the family seem to bring home all the trophies. Of course they practice more, or maybe, just maybe they are better than we are. Could this be possible?

We had a very hectic meeting, at least as far as sports were concerned. "Comrade Sports Member" wished to sponsor all the little league baseball teams but we decided that we would only sponsor one and that he would have to take a chance on making a team the same as the rest of the kids. He sure tries, and now we aren't so certain he will get a berth on any of the teams.

One of the members of the committee made the very profound observation that here in Labrador we only have two seasons. "This Winter and Last Winter" and, "Comrade Horseshoes" agrees with him.. He incidentally has decided to paint the frames of the pitch black so they will show up in the snow. "Comrade Sick and Visiting" reported that the fellows have been in pretty good shape this month. Barring a few cases of the croup, we have all been pretty good. He further reported comrades Larry Butt and Sid Clarkson are on the mend and are both out of the hospital. No one else is watching our TV sets at the Capt. Jackman Hospital, at least none of our comrades and Comrade Ralph Knight suggested that he too is all better.

We have all suffered a very severe blow with the death of "Comrade Fred Woodward". We all join in offering our deepest sympathies to the bereaved family.

"HE SHALL NOT GROW OLD AS WE WHO ARE LEFT GROW OLD"

We should leave you on a happy note but, how can we when we have lost one of our comrades. So, the next time you see a "Legion Pin" in a lapel, remember we are one less.
