LEARNING THE LESSONS OF LIFE

by Patience Strong.

Give me the strength to go through with my task. This is my prayer; this is all that I ask. Not to be spared from the strain and the stress, but to be able to do with success the jobs I am given, and never to fail - never to grumble, to flag or bewail.

Not to be given an easier part - but to be granted the grace and the heart - to tackle my problems with courage and zest - in spite of all hindrances, doing my best . . . Not to be led along pathways that please - taking my pleasures and walking at ease - but to be shod for the storm and the flood - the difficult places, the ruts and the mud.

Thus may I welcome the jolts and the jars -
 - keeping my eyes on the light of the stars - believing that somehow the goal I shall reach - learning the lessons that Life has to teach.
