

Graduates

John was born Sept. 28, '50 with a scream that rocked Grand

John Barrow

Falls, "Meanwhile back at the ranch" John hopes to become a commercial artist, but at the rate he's going is destined to be a ham radio operator. His activities ind: A. Y., Year Book, Prefects, Student Council

Heather was born Oct. 14, '48 at Toronto, Ont. She hopes to be a nurse, but her pet peeve is doctors. Ask her opinion on this her only comment is "same difference",

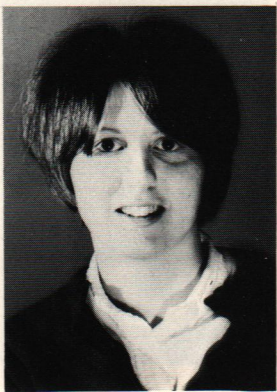

Heather Antle

Her probable destiny- being nursed in an old maids home (not really) Her activities ind: Prefects, A Y.

Class of 1967

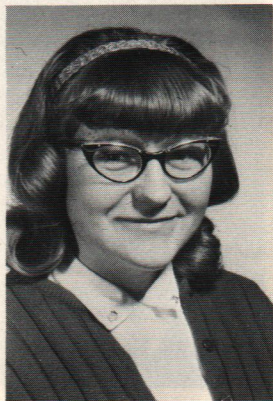

Marilyn Boone was born November 14, 1949 at Stephenville, Newfoundland.

Marilyn Boone

She is our future stewardess, and if it'll get her away from Ray, she'll take off at any time. Her activities include: cheerleaders, sports, and Allied Youth.

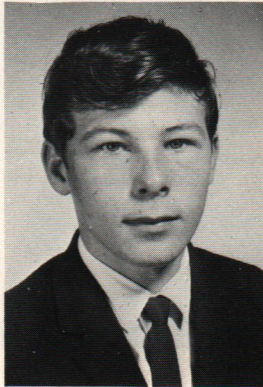

Patti was born at Thetford Mines, Quebec on Oct. 7, '49. Her pet peeve is boys. She hopes to become a Mathematician. With her aptitude for Latin, we think she's more likely to become a Latin Prof. Her most uttered words:

Patti Boulet

"Do your own work". Her act. spts, pre. & AY.

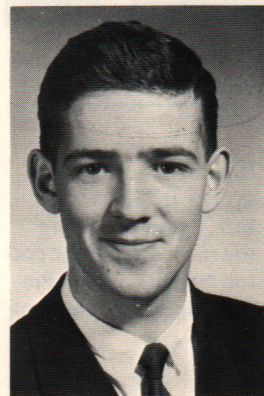

A late Valentine baby (Feb. 22) was born to Mr. & Mrs. Brinston in Corner Brook in 1950. Our Tony, who hopes to someday convince Smeaton he's crazy, also hopes to find time for R.O.T.P. whenever you hear a plaintive voice saying "Save us a drag", you will know Tony is nearby. His act: spts, & yearbook.

Tony Brinston

"You're supposed to be on duty", was heard for the first time on Oct. 14, '49 at Grand Bank. This was the birthplace of Mike, our future fuse changer at JRSC. Mike, whose pet peeve is French, hopes to further his studies and become an electrician. His act: Prefects, sports, and Chess.

Michael Crowther

Sharon Edwards first saw the light at Gander, Nfld. on Sept. 15, '52. Shar, whose pet peeve is life, hopes to become a secretary, but we see her as a very private secretary. Whenever you hear "What's the gaff on you, buddy?", you can tell Sharon's nearby with her cheerful disposition. Act. AY, Cheerleaders, Sports.

Sharon Edwards

Sharon Douglas came into this old world on Jan. 28 '50 at Stanley NB. Dougie's future is undecided. Judging from her talent, we predict she will become a basketball star at LCC.

Sharon Douglas

Her favorite frequent saying is "That's not fair," and the thing she most dislikes is cotton batting. Act. Pre, AY, Sports, Year Book

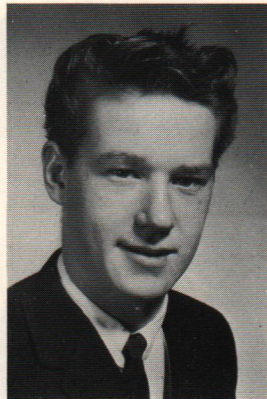

At Bridgewater, N.S., on Nov. 8, '49, a little voice was heard wailing "How's that grab ya?" This was

Anne Herman

Anne's debut. Her pet peeve is the grade eleven boys. She will go on to study to be a French teach--but is more liable to get her Mrs. Her act. Drama Yr. Bk, Pre, Cheerleaders, Sports.

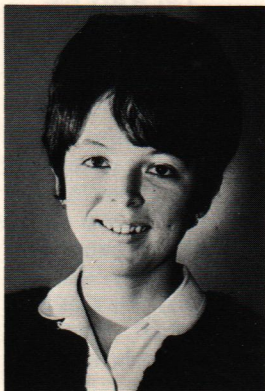

The time was June, '50, the place was Cooks Hr., Nfld, and the event--the birth of Kevin Field. Kev's future will probably include winning a Talk-a-thon if he changes greatly from the way he now is, although he hopes to become an electrician.

Kevin Field

Kevin has no pet peeve, and his favorite saying is "Yeah".

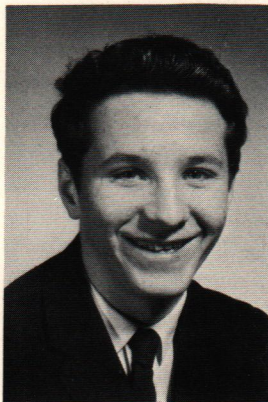

Jane was born on April 5, '51 at Moncton, N.B. She hopes to become a teacher, but who knows what her future will be.

Jane Humphrey

Her pet peeve is school uniforms, and her favorite saying is "Oh, no!" Her activities include Sports, Drama Club, and Allied Youth.

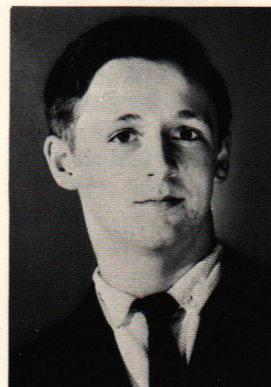

April 30, '50 saw the arrival of Carl in Atikokan, Ont. His pet peeve is kids smoking, and his ambition is to be a veterinary--although a horse doctor is more likely to be his destiny. His activities include Sports, Year Book, Allied Youth.

Carl Lemke

June 23, '50 was the birth date of Ray in Stephenville, Nfld. His ambition is to become a teacher but we fear that Ray will go through life as Rauchberger's assistant. His pet peeve is, naturally, Rauchberger. His favorite saying is,

Raymond March

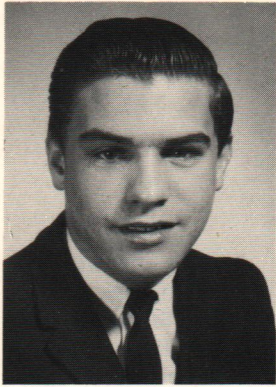

"Ex Natura Sequitur Esse." His act: Sports, School Band, Newspaper.

Ed was born May 25, '49 at Bell Island Nfld. He is destined to become a Montreal Canadian star--whether he likes it or not, and his pet peeve is--would you believe?--certain girls. His favorite saying--"Ungh". His act: Hockey, Basketball, Volleyball.

Edward Kent

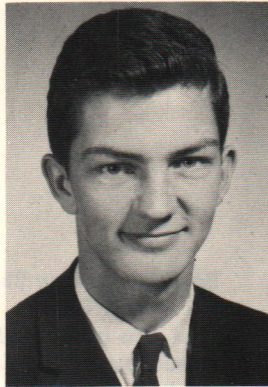

Mike was born Nov. 6, 1949, at St. John's Nfld. He hopes to become a forester, but, judging by some of his "works of art", is destined to be a starving poet. His pet peeve is Mme. Sylvestre, and his favorite saying is "Ah! C'mon!" His activities include: Year Book, Prefects.

Micheal Marcotte

Bell Island, Nfld. was the place, and Nov. 3, 1950 the date of one of the "major events" of the century--the birth of Bill McCarthy. Bill, destined to become caretaker at the morgue, hopes to enter medicine. When you hear someone chanting "supercalifragilisticexpialidocious", you can be sure it's Bill--whose pet peeve is Martians who wear glasses. Act: yr.bk., debating, sports, prefects.

Bill McCarthy

"I'm Willy the Meany" was heard for the first time in St. John's on July 7, 1948. Our "hopefully" future electrical engineer, who is destined to roll his own smokes. His pet peeve is--naturally--forward girls. His act: basketball, bowling, and badminton.

Tom Moyst

Carol was born in Digby, N.S. on Dec. 23, 1948. Her ambition is to get her B.Ed., and--with her determination-- she'll do it. She hasn't a pet peeve, and her favorite saying is "Not necessarily." Act: Debating, newspaper.

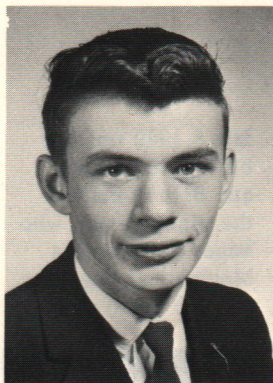

Carol Marshall

On June 11, '49, in Grand Falls, a small red-head named Joan, entered the world. From that time her fear has been that she will become a professional babysitter. Her favorite saying is "I have so, sir", and pet peeve is writing compositions.

Joan O'Leary

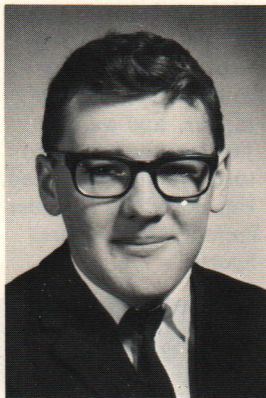

She hopes to enter nursing. With her stamina and good humor she will be successful. Her act: Yr. Bk, Cherlds, Pre, A. Y, Sports.

Paul O'Leary

Aug. 17, 1950 saw the sleepy arrival of the still sleepy Paul, in Grand Falls. His pet peeve has always been an empty stomach, and as he has been usually busy preventing this, he hasn't had time to talk. He hopes to be an Electronic Eng. and if he can stay awake long enough, that's just what he will be. His act: Pool, Sports, Sleeping.

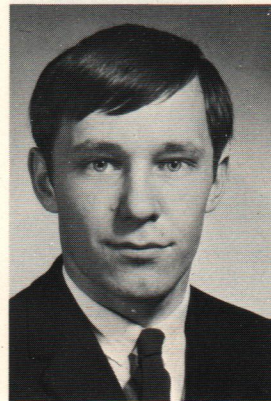

On Jan. 20, 1950 a small voice in Dunbarton, Scotland was heard muttering "Didja hear the one about.." These are the famous first words of David Poole, and they are still his favorites. Dave, whose pet peeve is AMH., hopes to be a Civil Eng., but actually has a better chance of becoming a wandering photographer. His Act: Drama, Yr. Bk, Chess, Pre, Sports.

David Poole

Windsor, N.S. was the birth place of "the kid". July 14,

Mike Perry

1948 was the day when Mr. & Mrs. Perry became the proud parents of bouncing baby Michael. Mike, our future paint-bruch cleaner, dislikes school, and his ambition is to be a commercial artist. His act: Soccer, Volleyball, Basketball and Allied Youth.

Carl was born Jan. 25, 1950 at Winnipeg, Man.

Carl Rauchberger

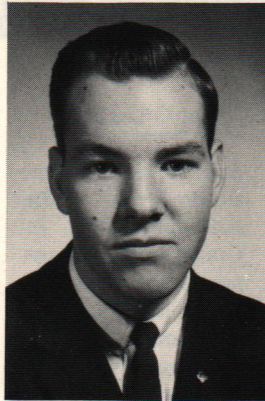

He hopes to become a surgeon, but is more likely to be an expert meat chopper at Merc's. His pet peeve is guys who can't afford a haircut and his favorite saying is "Don't know, b'y." Carl's activities include: Prefect, sports.

Our Future curler taker-outer, Dolores, was born at Bell Island on June 4, 1950. Her favorite saying --- "I don't know." and her pet peeve -- English. Dolores hopes to become a stenographer, and we can just see her sitting on some young boss' knee. Her activities include: Prefect, Intra-Mural Sports.

Dolores Rees

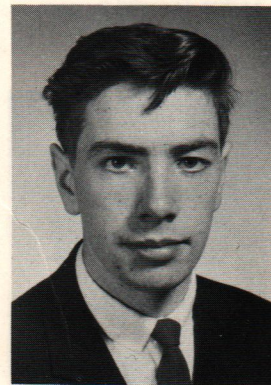

Jan. 8, 1949 was the birth date of Irwin and Bell Island was the place. Irwin, who hopes to become a Mechanical Engineer, is much apt to succeed as a grease monkey. His favorite saying is "You are looking good, b'y.", and his pet peeve is grade XI girls. His act. -- Prefect, sports.

Irwin Rees

Feb. 23, 1950 a shrill wail was heard in St. John's, and a voice was heard saying "Aw, what's his name." This was Malcolm Smeaton. "Sandy" has an intense dislike for people, and an equally intense desire to be rich. His activities include: Prefect, Year Book.

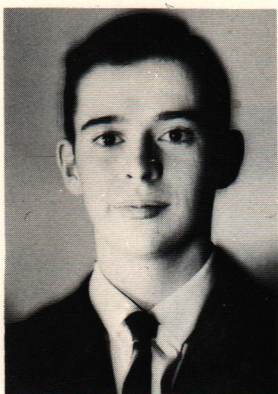

Malcolm Smeaton

Lillian Walsh

She sang first note on Aug. 17, 1950 in Springfield, Mass. She hopes to become a hairdresser, but this year we've seen evidence that she'll probably be the best prompter ever. Her pet peeve is - Believe it or not - going steady. Her activities: Cheerleaders, Prefects, Drama, Sports.

Gander, Nfld., and the date Dec. 12, '49, will go down in history as the date and birthplace of Tim Walsh. He hopes to join the foreign service -but we know better! His favorite saying is "Good Idaya", and his pet peeve is Smeaton. Tim's act: Sports, A. Y., Drama, Year Book.

Tim Walsh

COMMERCIAL

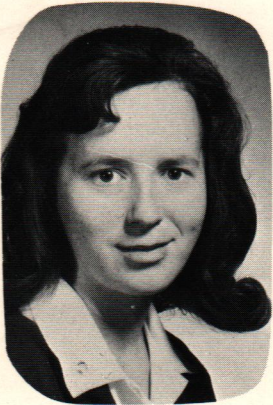

Toni Edwards

Lindy Stoodley

Lorraine Collins

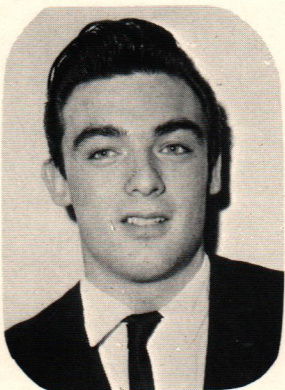

Shirley Parsons

Judy Porter

Karen Kent

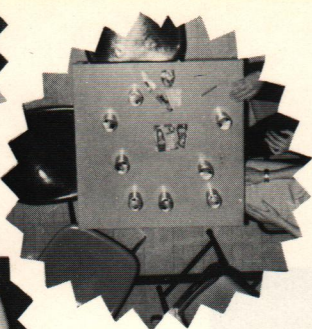

Larry Powers

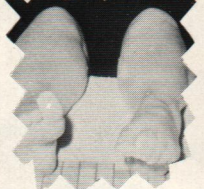

COMMERCIAL

CLASS

CANDIDS

?

ALLONS AMALGAMATED QUIZ-A-GO-GO

